Vicious Bull Kills Johnston W. Biddle, Edenburg Farmer

Son Also Gored Recovering Body Of Dead Father

Aged Farmer Had Been Leading Bull To Water
When It Attacked Him

RAYMOND BIDDLE
BADLY INJURED

With Collar Bone Broken He Managed To Succeed In Getting Bull Tied

Johnston Walter Biddle, aged 74, prominent farmer of the Edenburg district during his entire lifetime, met death in a tragic manner late Saturday afternoon when he was attacked by a mad bull, which he was leading to the spring for water. His son, Walter Raymond Biddle, aged 42, was also attacked by the bull and badly injured when he attempted to recover his father's body. Only an expert knowledge of how to handle the animal enabled him to save his own life. William R. Biddle, aged 22, a grandson, who lived with the grandfather, was also attacked by the animal a little later in the afternoon, before it was finally subdued.

Finds Father
According to the story of W. Raymond Biddle, the son he had gone to his father's farm on the outskirts of Edenburg, about 4:30 p. m. Saturday. When he got there, he noticed the bull standing alone, alongside the springhouse. Going closer to investigate, he was horrified to find his father's lifeless body, against the springhouse door, badly mangled about the abdomen, where the bull had repeatedly gored him with its horns. The rope attached to the bull's nose-ring, was tangled about his legs.

As the son attempted to dislodge

PA NEW OBSERVES

Lawrence county's elderberry crop this year is going to be a bumper, according to Constable Rolla Morrow, self-appointed elderberry investigator for the Ancient Order of New Castle Housewives. Morrow was up in Tulaski township last week where he found the elderberry bushes suffering from lame back carrying their load. He declares that he saw pods a foot wide and berries as large as huckleberries. Pa New has been a great lover of elderberries ever since he learned the juvenile art of smearing his chops with jam. There may be eaters better than an elderberry pie but what are they?

James Black, prominent Washington county farmer, came to New Castle on Saturday wearing the Volant smile and feeling pretty well satisfied with his lot as an agriculturist. He said that he has his crops pretty well harvested, and that his wheat and oats have turned out well. The only kick he has is that the price of wheat has been going down. Wheat can't be raised under a cloud, a bushel, he declares, and he thinks the speculators are forcing the price down to buy up the crop cheap. Speculators are on the blacklist, so far as Black is concerned.

The hay-fever season opens officially today. Now, if ever, comes perfect hay fever weather. Now, if ever, the nose becomes stuffed, the eyes begin to itch, and the sneeze breaks the stillness of the August air. Hay fever is no fun, however much the jocosities may enliven it

Report British King And Queen
May Visit In United States
And Canada

(International News Service)
LONDON, Aug. 15.—Possibility that King George and Queen Elizabeth of England may visit the United States and Canada next year was voiced by the London Evening Standard today.
The British sovereigns recently concluded a triumphant three-day visit to France during which Anglo-French military and diplomatic relations were sealed.
The Standard, a conservative newspaper owned by Lord Beaverbrook, published its speculative story of the American visit on page one.

Chinese Troops Defeat Japanese In Major Battle

Thousands Of Japs Said To Be Fleeing Wrath Of Pursuing Chinese

BOMBERS RAID
CHINESE CITY

(International News Service)
SHANGHAI, Aug. 15.—Chinese troops crushing defeated Japanese forces in a major battle east of Juichang on the south bank of the Yangtze river, it was reported from the battle front today.
Advices received here via Hong Kong said thousands of Nipponese soldiers were in retreat to the north after suffering "most severe" casualties.
According to the dispatch, the victorious Chinese occupied the strategic towns of Shao and Nanghang and then pursued the fleeing Japanese, aiming to follow up the "staggering blow administered to Nippon's Yangtze river offensive against Hankow."

The Japanese were pushed back after starting a great drive against Juichang from Kuikiang at dawn yesterday. For 24 hours wage artillery and infantry combat raged until a sudden Chinese counter-attack cracked the Japanese lines and threw the Japanese into retreat, it was stated.
Six Japanese bombers raided Nanchang, Chinese airbase situated 150 miles south of Kuikiang. Details of the casualties and damage were not revealed.

Senator On Roosevelt "Purge"
Lists Scores President's Actions

(International News Service)
WAYCROSS, Ga., Aug. 15.—Terming himself a "Democrat—but no part time one" U. S. Senator Walter F. George today answered presidential endorsement of Lawrence Camp, a rival candidate by flatly declaring the "Democratic party is not, and cannot become a one man party."
Then, taking a direct slap at President Roosevelt, Senator George charged that "federal power cannot be rightfully used to elect and defeat any candidate."

Elks' Conclave Opens Here Week From Today

The Pennsylvania State Elks' Association's 1938 convention convenes in New Castle one week from today—Monday, August 22.
While the advance party of officials will come to town on Saturday and Sunday, the main delegate group will arrive here Monday.

Trains Will Be "Hone"
Special trains from different sections of the state, chartered by various lodges, will bring hundreds here for the conclave which continues through until Thursday, August 25, the day of the mammoth street parade.
The special trains will serve many as living quarters during their four-day stay.
Decorations will appear in the downtown section later this week, Elks lodge officials said. Arrangements for their installation have been completed.

No Action Taken By City Council In New City Hall

Taxpayers Meet With Council
Today And Express
Views On Proposal

MAYOR NOT READY FOR ANSWER YET

Council met with taxpayers, large and small, in city hall today and following a several hours discussion, council adjourned without introducing legislation asking the federal government for a grant of 45 percent to use toward the cost of such a structure.
It had been anticipated that a showdown would come this morning as the result of Thursday's councilmanic meeting when solons, excepting W. H. Dunlap, indicated they were in favor of making such a request. Today the taxpayers came to discuss the problem.

Not Ready
Mayor Charles E. McGrath told the audience the council had not made any definite decision and that he himself, would not today be in a position to vote because work must be started on such a building before January 1.

He said that if the city put the question to the voters the ballots for or against the floating of a bond issue for the remaining cost, 55 percent, would not come until the fall election and it might not be possible to have plans prepared and work started before January 1.
The mayor said the councilmanic discussion was for a $150,000 building. He said he understands the city paid $700,000, for plans years ago, for the proposed remodeling of the city building and he wished to fully study these prior to making any new city hall decision.

Council Joseph D. Alexander explained to the audience that, he meant by his statement Thursday that the question would come up for discussion Monday. It had been stated that the question would come to a showdown. He said remodeling of the building had proved quite expensive to taxpayers.
Not Necessary
The mayor then said the income from the present city building might take care of the city's 55 percent of cost and said that in 1936,

Witness Says U. S. Nazis Build Spy System

John C. Metcalfe and Representative Martin Dies look at a photograph of Bund activities

Testifying in Washington before a special house committee investigating "un-American activities" in the United States, John C. Metcalfe, undercover agent, charges that the Nazi movement in the United States aims to set up a "vast spy network" and "powerful sabotage machine" for use in case of war. Quizzed by Representative Martin Dies of Texas, chairman of the committee, Metcalfe, a native of Germany who came to this country in 1914, told of joining the German-American Bund under a German name and later became a trusted lieutenant of Fritz Kuhn, national Bund leader referred to as the "American Hitler". Metcalfe said he estimated that "at least a half million persons in this country" are members, supporters or sympathizers with the Nazi movement. The witness said that "at least 90 percent of the German-Americans in the United States are opposed to the activities" of Nazi supporters. Metcalfe, left, and Dies look at a photo of Bund drilling.

German Fliers Make West-
East Crossing In Less Than Twenty Hours

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Aug. 15.—The record-breaking round-trip flight between Germany and New York of the German plane Brandenburg, captained by the Condor was hailed by Reich officials today as a major step toward trans-Atlantic passenger air service.

The four-motored plane on its return flight covered a distance of 4,083 miles in 19 hours and 54 minutes, surpassing by five hours and 51 minutes the mark set by the late Wiley Post in his non-stop New York to Berlin flight in 1935.
The German plane averaged 204 miles per hour during the long eastward crossing.

Samuel T. Burns Made Music Head

Son Of Late Councilman
W. T. Burns Named To Indiana University

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 15.—Samuel T. Burns, who was graduated from Senior high school at New Castle, Pa., in 1912 and who since 1934 has been state director of music of Louisiana, has been appointed professor of public school music of Indiana university. It was announced here today by President Herman B. Wells.
Introduction in the schools of Louisiana of a program of "music for every child and every child for music" is held in musical education circles to have given Professor Burns a national reputation in that field. Under the program the number of Louisiana parishes employing school music teachers was increased in four years from 11 to 51. Burns will join the faculty of the School of Music at Indiana in September.
Mr. Burns is a graduate of New Castle high school and a son of the late city councilman, William T. Burns.

MILITARY ATTACHES

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—German army maneuvers, officially described as "smaller and more scattered than in previous years," got under way in the eastern regions of the Reich today as European capitals seethed with rumors of some projected new Nazi coup.
Germany's entire officialdom depicted all such reports as the work of professional alarmists and insisted the army games were being carried out along lines conceived and announced many months ago.
The Nazis declared themselves at a loss to understand the tension caused by the maneuvers, pointing out that other European armies have embarked upon identical military movements in recent weeks without precipitating any international anxiety.
The first batch of reservists scheduled to participate in the maneuvers, approximately 50,000 men, was distributed rapidly in Glatz province and other areas abutting on Czechoslovakia.
Another 50,000 are expected to take the field before the end of the week. Conscription of transportation of all kinds, including farm horses, trucks and wagons, is progressing apace. The country's entire military resources will be utilized in one manner or another, but there is absolutely no reason for international alarm, officials declared. Nevertheless, foreign military attachees were observed closely

Annual Reunion Will Take Place In Schoolhouse On
Pearson Street

Tuesday is Reynoldstown reunion day. Everyone who went to Reynoldstown school before 1910 are invited to meet with the Reynoldstown association in the old schoolhouse on Pearson street.
The reunion will start at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Anna McGurk, in charge. The Reynoldstowners will bring baskets of food for themselves and to provide for out-of-towners, and they will sit down to a picnic supper in the schoolhouse after the regular reunion program. The association will furnish ham, coffee, cream and ice cream.

Are Roughly Handled

(International News Service)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 15.—The death penalty under the Lindbergh law today hung over the heads of two kidnapers of a socially prominent St. Louis girl and her escort.

The victims, Miss Peggy Gross, 23, and Daniel Cox Fahey, Jr., 31, an architect both bore the marks of rough handling by their abductors on a wild thirty-six hour ride from St. Louis, as state and local police mobilized federal agents in a concerted hunt for the pair.
Victims Abused
Miss Gross was near exhaustion from lack of food and sleep and nervous tension. She was bruised and had arms and face swollen from noquito bites. Fahey's head was cut and bruised where one of the gunmen slugged him with a pistol butt at the time of the holdup late Friday.
By taking Miss Gross and Fahey across state lines the kidnapers violated the Federal Lindbergh law that carries the death penalty as maximum punishment if the victims are harmed.
The search for the pair was spread into the Dakotas and Wisconsin today. Radio alarms were frequently broadcast giving descriptions of the men and Fahey's car, a brown sedan with red wire wheels.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—"Jimmy Hines, the Tammany 'big shot' who was brought to trial today, thinks he can beat Dewey. (Nobody important has done it yet.)
"I'll win this fight," Hines told me in court today, a few minutes before America's ace "rackets" prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey, brought him to trial. "I've been through political fights before."

Hines' light blue eyes glinted as he snapped out these words. It was the first time I met the man and I'm sure from the way he said it he meant it. You get the impression that Hines is a battler. One of the things you notice most about him are those light blue eyes. They can snap at times. They snapped when he said he'd beat Dewey.

Dewey was no doubt just as confident as Hines—but he didn't have any predictions to make when he strode into court, and got down to business in a business-like way.
It was quite a spectacle—the Dewey versus Hines battle which went into the first round today. At the ringside, so to speak, was the greatest collection of newspaper talent since the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann in Flemington, N. J., a few years ago. The press

Gulf Storms Roar In On Southwest

Texas-Louisiana In Storm's Path

Property Damage Believed Large But No Estimate Available Today

SANDBAG CREWS HELD IN WAITING

(International News Service)
LAKE CHARLES, La., Aug. 15.—One man was killed, another injured and scores suffered a night of terror as a tropical hurricane struck the Louisiana coast last night and roared over this city to wash itself out in rain squalls today.
As the weather bureau at New Orleans ordered all storm warnings down along the Texas and Louisiana coasts and declared danger past, the hurricane had claimed the life of Charlie Johnson, caretaker of a camp below here. He was drowned in the Calcasieu river.
Ed Kersner, 39-year-old resident of Lake Charles, was blown from the second story stairs of his apartment and suffered a fractured hip.
The hurricane, which struck the Louisiana-Texas coast several hours before it was expected, failed to live up to its anticipated fury.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 15.—Following in the wake of a furious tropical storm that roared in from the Gulf of Mexico rescue workers searched a 75-mile strip of shoreline along the Texas-Louisiana border today for possible victims.

No Estimate Yet.
No estimate of the property damage was available early today. But it was believed heavy in some districts affected. Lake Charles, a town of 14,000 population, was believed hardest hit by the winds that reached a near-hurricane velocity of 60 miles an hour.

Wires were blown down and communication with fishing village of Cameron was cut late last night and fears were felt for the safety of the 100 inhabitants.

No loss of life had been reported, however, at the weather bureau today as the winds abated and the storm lashed itself out inland.

Waves 10 to 12 feet high smashed coastal barriers and breakwaters from Galveston to Morgan City, La., in many places sandbag crews were held on duty throughout the night to fight the rush of water.

Jurors are remarkable people. When a big shot is arrested for a crime, they are the only twelve people in town who consider him innocent till he is proved guilty.

SON ALSO GORED RECOVERING BODY OF DEAD FATHER

The rope from about his father's body, the bull charged him, and knocked him to the ground. Each time he attempted to rise, he would be knocked to the ground again. He sustained a broken left collar bone and wounds of the thigh and chest where he was gored. Retaining his presence of mind, he managed to reach up and secure the ring in the bull's nose, and with a superhuman effort, exert enough strength to throw it, after which he got to his feet and led the bull to a fence in the barnyard, where he secured it with a log chain, after which he staggered to the house nearby. He was seriously injured, he is expected to recover unless complications develop.

In the meantime, W. Raymond Biddle's son, William R. Biddle, who lived on the farm with his grandfather, and who had been in the field threshing, came home. As he went to the barnyard where the bull was tied, he became enraged at him, and tore the fence loose, making after him. Neighbors arrived and finally subdued the animal and secured it in the barn.

Born In 1863
Johnston W. Biddle was born at Edenburg, August 22, 1863. He would have been 75 years of age next Monday. He was the son of Arnie and Mary Johnston Biddle and had spent his entire lifetime at Edenburg being the last of his family.

He was married to Elizabeth Corcoran who preceded him in death. Three children, J. Howard Biddle, of Laurel Boulevard, this city, Mrs. J. M. Dunham of Warren, O., and Walter R. Biddle, of Edenburg survive. He also leaves six grandchildren.

Funeral services will take place from the Hodge Funeral Home on Wallace avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. A. A. Swanson, of the Edenburg Methodist Episcopal church in charge, assisted by Rev. William Vaughn, of the Edenburg Christian church. Burial will take place in Greenwood cemetery.

Friends will be received by the family at the Hodge Funeral home this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

GOSHINSKI SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT

Some improvement was noted today in the condition of Adam Goshinski, of Osage street, local cabinet maker, who was seriously injured last Thursday afternoon in a fall from the second-story doorway of his cabinet shop at 105 South Mercer street. It was stated at the hospital today that Goshinski had a fair night and slight improvement is noted.

It will be remembered that William H. Cooper, local transfer man, received fatal injuries at the same time, in an attempt to save Goshinski from falling, both men being precipitated to the pavement below.

WAR MANEUVERS GET UNDER WAY, EUROPE SEETHES

taches, including those of the United States, are keeping a close watch on developments for any possible war-like intensification of the preparations. There is no question that Germany will be in an advantageous military position for any emergency during the next few weeks.

Work on Forts.
Coincident with the maneuvers, work on Germany's western fortifications proceeded at top speed. The total number of men engaged in the work was not known but was estimated at close to 300,000.

General Victor Vuillemin, chief of the French air staff, is due here tomorrow, accompanied by General Destier. They will be official guests of the German government during the maneuvers and will inspect German military airports and airplane plants as well as witness an extensive aviation program mapped out for them.

Throughout the day, tanks and military lorries lumbered over heavily guarded roads to the war game areas while scores of military airplanes darkened the skies. While the government insisted the games were smaller than in previous years, they were planned on a spectacular scale designed to demonstrate the vast improvements recently made in military mechanization.

Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler gave the maneuvers an official send-off by reviewing a regiment in action at the Jüterbog training grounds near Berlin.

NEW SCHOOL LAW TO BE DISCUSSED BY COUNTY HEADS

der the Thompson bill and tentative building plans can be submitted to the department.

Under the plans, as understood by Mr. Syling, the state will supply from Federal funds, outright grants of from 45 to 70 per cent in the construction of new buildings, and the state will supply from its own resources, one-half of the 55 per cent remaining on a 45 per cent grant, leaving the school district twenty-seven and a half per cent to pay for over a period of 30 years with interest at 4 per cent. This would mean that on a building costing $100,000, the school district would pay back $27,500 plus interest over a thirty year period, when the loan would be terminated.

There is a further proviso, that where the district is unable to pay, the department will pay up to the entire cost of new construction.

Complete information will be secured at the meeting in Franklin Wednesday, which will be submitted to the school boards at the general meeting August 29.

This will also be a regular meeting of the county school board on Thursday evening, August 18, for the approval of financial reports, and transportation contracts, in the office of the county superintendent.

Deaths of the Day

Frank Hamilton, aged 49 years, of 811 West Clayton street, died at 7:45 p. m. Saturday in the James Memorial hospital where he had been lying in a critical condition for the past week.

His death, much regretted by the Mahoningtown community where he had been known all his life, followed several months of illness. He was a highly respected citizen, a member of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church and the Free and Accepted Masons, New Castle lodge, and employed as a salesman for the New Castle Candy company.

Surviving are his wife, Marie Burns Hamilton; one daughter, Jean, at home; one son, Frank, of Dayton, O.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hamilton; the following sisters, Mrs. W. F. McClurg, Mrs. H. B. Bush and Mrs. Roy F. Preston of this city and Mrs. C. E. Iman of Crestline, O., and the following brothers, Robert F. Hamilton, Dr. Lee W. Hamilton and Dr. Ralph A. Hamilton of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, 502 West Madison avenue. Interment will be made in Graceland cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Quinn
Many friends and relatives attended services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the late Mrs. Charles Quinn, conducted from the residence on Neshannock avenue.

Rev. W. W. Shiff was in charge of the services. Mrs. Helen Kitzel and Robert Park sang two vocal numbers, "Jesus Took My Burden" and "Sometime We'll Understand", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Austin Graft.

Palbearers were Albert Bartberger, Harvey Kitzel, Harvey Stickle, Philip Kitzel, Dale Quinn and Richard Morgan. Interment was made in Savannah cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Tillia
Chevion Christian church was filled to capacity Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when funeral services were conducted for the late Mrs. Tillia, of Wampum R. D. 1, beloved member of the congregation.

Rev. Charles Z. Bell, D. D., of Ellwood City, was the minister in charge. A great profusion of beautiful flowers had been sent from friends far and near in memory of the deceased.

O. V. Douthett and Creighton Hennen, accompanied by Dorothy J. Conners, sang "Rock of Ages" and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye."

Members of Mrs. Tillia's Sunday school class, whose names follow, served as palbearers: Loyd Brown, Merle Guy, Roy Douthett, Lewis Guy, Thomas Houk and Albert Lutz. A class of women of which Mrs. Tillia had been a member attended in a Slippery Rock cemetery.

Anthony Bosco.
Anthony Bosco, aged 66 years, died Sunday night at 9 o'clock in his home, 1013 Huey avenue, after a long illness.

Mr. Bosco was born in Italy on the 10th of March, 1872. In 1902 he came to America and resided in St. Louis, Mo., until 1911. He was a machinist by occupation and had been an employee of the Johnson Bronze. He was a member of St. Vitus church and of the Old Veteran Lodge.

He leaves his wife, Catherine Spinnello Bosco, two sons, John, of Scranton and Joseph, of Pittsburgh; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Theobald and Mrs. Rose Fortuna, this city; six grandchildren, two brothers in Italy and two cousins, Louis Bosco and Rosie Reggio, in New Castle.

High mass of requiem will be celebrated at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in St. Vitus church and interment will follow in the church cemetery.

Caldwell Services.
Many relatives and friends gathered at the Thompson residence Sunday afternoon for the funeral of Mr. Caldwell. Numerous beautiful floral pieces filled a section of the room where the casket stood.

Rev. Richard Owey, pastor of the Peoples Mission, New Castle was assisted in the services by Braden Houk, also by Mrs. William McKenzie and Mrs. Joseph Jenkins who sang "Face to Face With Jesus" and "Good Night Here."

The palbearers were Harry McKim, John Cameron, John Cunningham, William Winnall, Herman Hall and J. Widdowfield. Interment was made in Newport cemetery.

Charles B. Smith.
Complications from his advanced age resulted in the death of Charles B. Smith, at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at his home near Volant.

Mr. Smith, 82 years old, was born at Harlansburg on January 22, 1856.

son of Jesse H. and Mary Cornea Smith. His lifetime was passed in the district where he died. He was a farmer by occupation, and a member of the Leesburg Presbyterian Church. He first married, Elia Ross who preceded him in death and then twenty eight years ago he married Elizabeth Black, who survives.

Besides his wife he leaves the following children, Lillian and Harold H. at home, Dewey K., of Volant, R. D. 2, and Mrs. Flora Smith Williams of Grove City, three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Uffert of Leesburg, Mrs. Emma Offert of Leesburg and Mrs. Effie Oaks of Volant, R. D. 2, and two brothers, Elmer E. of Edensburg and Harry W. of Youngstown.

Funeral services will take place on Tuesday at 2 p. m., from the residence near Volant, and Dr. S. A. Kirkbride, of New Wilmington will officiate. Interment will be in Leesburg cemetery.

Riddle Funeral.
Funeral services for James M. Riddle of Grove City R. D. 1 took place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Cunningham funeral home in Leesburg, with Rev. H. M. Stevenson officiating. Rev. Stevenson read during the services a favorite hymn of the deceased, "Abide With Me."

James Glenn, Willard Glenn, Walter Coyer, Charles Riddle, Donald Riddle and Kenneth Palmer were the palbearers. Interment was made in North Liberty cemetery.

Paul Leslie Hartzell
Paul Leslie, two and a half months old son of Chester and Margaret Patton Hartzell, died at the home, New Castle R. D. 4 at 8:15 a. m., today, after three weeks of illness.

The infant was born May 31, 1938. He leaves his parents, four brothers, Hugh, William, Chester and Donald, and one sister, Doris, at home, and grandparents, John Hartzell and Mr. and Mrs. John Patton of New Castle.

Private services are to be conducted at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will follow in Oak Park cemetery.

Mary Daly Funeral Time
Funeral mass for Miss Mary Daly of Neshannock avenue will be celebrated at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning in St. Mary's church. Interment will be in the church cemetery. The body is at the home of a sister, Mrs. Jerry Maher, 109 Wallace avenue.

Jackson Funeral Time
Funeral mass for James E. Jackson of 927 Morton street will be celebrated at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in St. Mary's church, and interment will be made in the parish cemetery. The body is at the Darrell Burke funeral home.

Mrs. William Moses.
Mrs. Mary Moses, wife of William Moses of 307 Preston avenue, died at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the New Castle hospital where she had been undergoing treatment for a week. She was in poor health for the past six months.

Mrs. Moses leaves her husband and three daughters, Mrs. Lella Stallings of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Carrie Sessions of New Castle and Mrs. Leatrice Gilmore of Pittsburgh.

She was a member of St. Paul's Baptist church on West North street. Funeral services will take place there on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. M. Cecil Mills, in charge. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

The body will be at the residence Tuesday evening.

FIVE WOUNDED BY NEW YORK MANIAC

Sanfillippo, protected by a homemade bullet proof vest consisting of two steel plates, one on his chest and the other on his back and fastened to his body with wire, stalked up to the police ceremonies just as they were drawing to a conclusion.

He fired first at a group of policemen standing in the rear of the bandstand.

Officers Wounded
Firing first with one shotgun and then with the other, Sanfillippo's shots wounded Police Lieutenant James P. McDonnell and Patrolman Frances Lynch. Civilians wounded were Louis Popernick, John Benny and George Tigholari. McDonnell, who has been cited fourteen times for bravery, was wounded in the face. The others suffered wounds about the body.

After Sanfillippo's first blast police returned the fire and about 25 shots were exchanged before Sanfillippo was fatally wounded. The shooting halted the services which were staged to honor policemen killed in action during the past year and as the ceremonies were being broadcast, the whole dramatic interlude was heard in thousands of homes. Two summons for auto violations and a lambing letter bearing the police were found in Sanfillippo's pockets.

Charles B. Smith.
Complications from his advanced age resulted in the death of Charles B. Smith, at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at his home near Volant.

Mr. Smith, 82 years old, was born at Harlansburg on January 22, 1856.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

With their wit and humor. The patient needs our sympathy at a time like this. And by way of consolation, Pa Newc has it on the authority of a local physician that there will not be so much pollen in the air this season on account of the moist weather. This good news should hearten the hay fever sufferers.

What with the various school reunions and the old timers gathering in the office, Pa Newc is being regaled with a lot of tales of other days. Most of these pioneers have ceased performing feats of skill, the latest being an 83-year-old man who has just given up the practice of standing on his head once every day. He has at last realized that the whole world is upside-down, and the stunt has no further appeal to the aged athlete.

We've been hearing a lot of late about the new "heaven", located across the Hudson from the Roosevelt estate. This is what might be called an earthly heaven. You may not know it, but there is also an earthly "hell". It is located in Norway, where there is a town by that name. You can reach either "heaven" or "hell" by boat, in case you are interested.

Those who complain about New Castle should go up to Meadville where the people are kicking about 21 miles of unpaved and unimproved streets. New Castle has a much better record than that, thanks to our street department, and the WPA workers.

Hundreds of citizens are stopping at show windows where antiques belonging to old timers are being shown. Among them are tin lanterns, cradles, candle molds, carpet weavers, ox yokes, firearms, spinning wheels, various articles of wearing apparel and many other reminders of gray haired years. We often hear the expression "Them was the good old days," but few of us would care to go back and endure life equipped with the utensils we now see on display.

Guardian angels are kept busy these days. Saw two little girls on a bicycle Sunday afternoon coming down a steep hill which angles off from the Armstrong bridge crossing the Slippery Rock creek. The brakes wouldn't hold as they hit the turn and the bicycle upset. There was no harm done.

one small spot of brush where they could land or they could have been dashed against the heavy abutment stones or catapulted down onto the rocks below. As it was they hit the brush pile and escaped with cuts and bruises.

Saturday evening, a proud father and mother were wheeling their twin sons, three months old, along East Washington street. They looked very cute, just like a pair of baby dolls. An admiring lady, looking at the twins saw that one was quite awake and enjoying himself, while the other was fast asleep, and having heard their names, asked which was which. The mother's answer was, "I cannot tell you until I take their bonnets off."

It might be a good idea if automobile drivers would remember, in addition to not driving over 50 miles an hour, that there is a law compelling them to dim their lights at night. Some drivers have very bright lights and either forget, or just neglect to dim them. Serious accidents have been caused by persons who did not comply with this law.

Motorists on Lawrence county highways have an easy time compared to those who drove machines some 30 years ago. Then we didn't have the paved roads, had to wear linen dusters, frequently had to stop the car and help farmers get their horses past.

FAITH
To properly serve the public, the funeral director must be both a professional and a business man. By the term "properly serving," we mean rendering all of the service which the public has a right to expect, at prices that are fair, based on scientific cost finding. He has to be a professional in preparing a body in such a manner as to restore it to life-like appearance, and at the same time care for it in such a manner that it will not be a detriment to the living.

He also must have a business knowledge that he may use his means to purchase the merchandise needed in his work in a business way. Practice makes perfect, and both of these requirements come from a long time engaged in this work. A few more weeks and we will have been in business for ourselves forty years, as well as being engaged in the work five years previous to that time, making a total of forty-five years experience.

ALCOHOL AND GASOLINE

DR. THOMAS A. GONZALES, chief medical examiner of New York City, estimates that at least one-third of the persons killed in highway accidents in the city in 1936 and 1937 had been drinking alcoholic liquors. His estimate is based on autopsy analyses of about 40 per cent of the victims. Of the number, 582 were pedestrians, and in this group 36 per cent showed traces or more of alcohol, while 34 per cent were shown to have been "definitely under the influence of alcohol." Coincident with this report is one by the Repeal Associates, an organization which supported repeal of the prohibition amendment, purporting to show that drunken driving conditions were worse under prohibition than under repeal, and worse today in dry states than in the respectively neighboring wet states.

It is possible to accept these latter conclusions, which are supported by a great deal of evidence, without attempting to minimize in any degree the perils arising from drinking—not necessarily drunkenness—and motoring. All that is required for a fatal crash is a momentary nod, just an instant of mental inattention, when the mind ceases to function and the hand to guide the wheel. In that fleeting instant the car swerves to one side into a pole or ditch or to the other side into another car. There, in a brief instant, a tragedy has been created. These lapses are induced by physical weariness and also by the effects of alcohol. It is not necessary for a driver to be wholly incompetent or irresponsible in order that he may constitute a menace to highway safety. The retarded functioning of the mental processes will produce the same deadly results.

If there were any doubts concerning the matter, the examinations of Dr. Gonzales would lend adequate substance to the theory, advanced so often in the past, that alcohol and gasoline do not mix.

SUMMER RECIPE

Certainly it's sticky, and the business world fairly bristles with men enraging by their neckties. But just because dog days are here we do not have to play the part of yapping canines in our manners—or do we?

The soft answer that turneth away wrath is never so effective as in the Summer. The other fellow is hot, too, and if his manner betrays the weather irks him, just treat yourself to an internal pitying smile—and he can't see it, but it'll do you good. After all you can be thinking of the plunge in the pool or of the shrieking perhaps joyously profane excitement of the cold shower, or, if built that way, of the cold "tall one"—iced tea, of course—you'll grab off when the day is done.

THEY HAVE MUCH TO LOSE

There are 64,000,000 policyholders in the United States with life insurance aggregating $110,000,000,000.

What will happen to the holdings of those 64,000,000 thrifty people if the government continues to encourage municipal competition with the privately owned and operated utilities in which most of the insurance companies have invested large portions of their capital wealth?

Obviously, the strength of the insurance companies will be seriously threatened. And that, in turn, will mean a general weakening of outstanding policies.

Make no mistake about it, the American people themselves will pay heavily for these ventures in the field of politicalized industry. It is to be hoped that the 64,000,000 policyholders will become aware of the danger before the undermining is carried to far.

HAGUE LAUGHS LAST

Radicals roared with laughter when Mayor Hague, in the recent civil liberties trial at Newark, declared that the CIO is dominated to a considerable extent by leaders with Communist leanings.

But now it's Mayor Hague's turn to laugh. Pacific Coast garments, auto, shoe and rubber unions have flatly repudiated the CIO Industrial Union Council headed by Harry Bridges, the chief complaint being that the group is controlled by the Reds.

And Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers, has succeeded in ousting three vice presidents accused of Communist affiliations and tactics.

Such moves obviously tend to vindicate the charges made by the Jersey City executive, though, of course, the free speech issue is another matter.

One thing is certain. Organized labor is wise to renounce leadership of the Communist variety. In its industrial relations, democratic America cannot be expected to condone the technique of the Soviets.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1938 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Victims of the most extraordinary craze in the history of the world, 5,000,000 homeless wanderers, homeless and helpless, are scattered throughout the civilized world, waiting—waiting for they know not what. It began with 2,000,000 Russians driven from their homes, villages and cities by the Bolshevik revolution.

When the Soviets rose to power in 1918, hordes of soldiers and peasants and their families fled north, south, east and west. Disease-ridden, hunger-tortured, ragged, they retreated hundreds of miles across the bare steppes. Thousands of them died on the way. Somehow those who were left reached Basmir, on the Persian Gulf, and put themselves under the protection of Britain.

Britain, not knowing what to do with them, shipped them all around Arabia, India, Malaya and China, up to far-off Vladivostok, where there was still a non-Bolshevik Russia in existence. When Vladivostok fell they had to go a-wandering again.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ARE YOU GOOD COLLEGE TIMBER?

In case you are planning to go to college, what are your chances of making good there? If your average grades at high school have been below the average of your class, your chances for success are very slim. Indeed, most colleges would not take you then without special examination. Your chances would be much better if you were in the upper 25 per cent of your class; still better if in the upper 10 or five.

Though not probable, it is possible, even though you ranked low in high school grades, that an intelligence test by a trained psychologist would reveal that you have mentality for college work. Your low grade in high school may have been caused by poor methods of study, lack of application, or poor health.

Unless your health is very good now, regardless of your mental ability or grades in high school, it hardly would be wise to enter college, especially if you lack emotional poise and don't sleep well or relax readily.

In case you had not acquired good methods of study in high school, the odds will be against your acquiring them at college. And if you were a loafer and had never learned to do hard mental work in high school, who is to suppose that you will do any better at college?

Do You Have Character? Granted that you have the mental stuff to succeed at college. Do you have the character stuff as well? Do you know what it is to do hard mental work? Have you learned to discipline yourself and stick rigidly to a program? Have you learned to direct your recreation wisely, to get enough of it and not too much, and to balance it wholesomely with work? Have you learned to manage yourself and to choose friends wisely?

Do you have money enough? In case you can't get your way, will your health stand it or will you always be a tired and worn out "horse"? Hardly would it be wise to try to earn your way entirely while at college. In case you do, plan to spread the course over six or eight years. Some who have ability to stick to a plan might well afford to quit college a year in the midst of the course in order to earn enough to go on later. Will the folks at home have to make unreasonable sacrifices in order to finance you at college?

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

WHY NOT?

There is a great flock of columnists in the daily press. If a city newspaper has not a few of these men working, it is just too bad. Some of them will specialize, writing for one newspaper; other are syndicated and appear simultaneously all over the nation. There is one newspaper in the country, however, that has no columnist and it is suggested that the Congressional Record would be improved somewhat if Congress would employ one. It is further suggested that he might start out his column with the following:

"Vigorous discussion on the new Census figures took place in Congress yesterday. When Congressman Connors concluded his speech, Congressman Gill remarked the galleries by starting 'thud.' 'Through the stork has been in business for thousands of years, he is still at the head of an infant industry.' Congressmen-Elect Wapodinkus (who represents a large Polish constituency) will not be seated despite his smashing victory. Charges of inducing voters to repeat are filed against him.

No Electioneering Around the Poles, Wapodinkus!

Congressman Hector Calwallader delivered a stirring speech yesterday concerning three immigrants from Czechoslovakia, who are being detained at Ellis Island. One is a young man of eighteen. The others are twins; two charming young ladies of twenty-two.

Czech and Double-Czech!"

What Noted People Say

NEW YORK—Kenneth J. Beebe of the American Schools association sees little opportunity for high school graduates:

"Our economic system is not geared to absorb them. Providing them with further training and education is about the only alternative parents have."

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y.—Douglas Corrigan tests his faithful old "crate" in which he flew to Ireland:

"I guess it will still get me some place if I have to go, although I'm not always sure of where it's going to take me. I expect it will be getting me back to California within the next few weeks."

Sun sets tonight 6:58; sun rises tomorrow 5:12.

The Reynoldstown School Reunion takes place tomorrow and the Roundhead Reunion also takes place at noon tomorrow. We got twisted in our dates on Saturday. The school reunion is at 2:30.

Every industry, says an editorial, should adopt a "live and let live" policy. How about the insect exterminator manufacturers?

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS
A dear old lady attended a reunion of old settlers and sat down next to an old fellow whom she had known in her youth.

"Why, Mr. Brown," she said eagerly. "It's years since we met. Do you recall when we used to play together, and I used to spank you when you didn't behave?"

"Yes, indeed," said the old gentleman who had grown somewhat deaf with the passing years. "Eh, hch, you'd hardly recognize the old place now, would you?"

A district attorney in West Virginia asked the judge to swear witnesses singly and not in groups and to do it slowly. He claimed there is too much perjury in the courts today. We will agree that a terrible lot of liars get onto witness stands now.

A lady in Butler was fined $10 for sweating at a man—and it was not her husband. All married gals should use their cusses only on their husbands.

AIN'T POLITICS GRAND!
"How are you going to vote this fall?" asked her dearest friend.

"In a new fur coat if I can work hubby for it," she confided.

He: "If you keep looking at me like that I'm going to kiss you."
She: "Well, I can't keep this expression much longer."

Removable roofs are now being used on some of the deserts of the west. Being able to take a roof off before a hurricane comes along keeps it from being blown into the next state.

"Ohio man, married nine times, goes insane"—Headline. How can a crazy man go insane?

"Why dad, this is roast beef?" exclaimed Willie at dinner one evening when a guest of honor was present.

"Of course," said the father.

"Why, you told mother this morning that you were going to bring home an old mutton-head for dinner this evening!"

Then the baker told a barber. And the barber told his boss. He could surely make some money. If he played the winning horse. So the crowd went to the races. But they quickly stood aghast. For the horse so widely touted. Finished absolutely last!

"Dear Miss Market—Should married and engaged couples be separated when seated as guests at a dinner?" H. S.

Answer—Married couples are usually separated; but an engaged couple is usually seated side by side.

"Dear Miss Market—Is it correct for the groom to kiss the bride at the altar after the ceremony?" M. M.

Answer—Yes, but this custom is fading. The groom should be the first to kiss the bride and this should be remembered by guests who rush to the bride as she leaves the church.

Chinese Plagues Alarming
Other Nations Are Concerned
Take Steps To Prevent Spread

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The United States Public Health Service is not unmindful of the spread of cholera in war-torn China.

Other countries' health service undoubtedly are similarly perturbed.

In fact, the health section of the League of Nations already has broadcast a worldwide warning.

Incidentally the American Red Cross recently rushed 3,000,000 doses of anti-cholera vaccine to the Chinese, and a movement is afoot to finance a still more extensive campaign against the epidemic on the eastern Asiatic mainland.

PERIL
Of course these measures are actually partly by sympathy for the afflicted Orientals. However, the medical authorities of Occidental governments are not entirely regardless of the peril of such a scourge in western lands. Strict quarantines are fairly effective but they are troublesome and not always completely airtight.

Japan (which isn't Occidental, to be sure) naturally is particularly worried.

The mikado can quarantine to the limit as to his home soil, but he cannot protect his troops in China itself, and it appears that the disease is making inroads in their ranks also. It is a grave danger to Japanese mainland activities, all right. The islanders are having plenty of trouble as it is, without driving their fighting men die of cholera too fast.

UNFAIR BLAME
In this emergency Nippon's spokesmen have the brass to blame international health officials in Shanghai, on the ground that it has failed competently to deal with the situation in its backwash.

Shanghai, be it understood, is American and European governed and American and European doctors regulate its sanitation. They do a corking good job. They realize that China is a focus of intestinal disease and are specialists at fighting it within their jurisdiction. Nevertheless it has crept in, due to conditions created by Japanese military operations in the surrounding territory.

It is as if some violent contagion were rampant throughout the United States and Manhattan's health department were criticized for failing to keep it north of the Bronx.

In short, Japan invaded a country which is susceptible to cholera. It started an epidemic. Probably it did so unintentionally. Certainly it did not intend to catch the germ itself. But Japan did it, and now tries to hold the international doctors in Shanghai responsible. Hardly needful to say that likewise is a hot weather disease.

Then next thing we are likely to hear, however, is that pneumonia plague is making its appearance among the Chinese. That is a winter disease, and China always has more or less of it when the thermometer is low. The coming winter, with millions of starving homeless, nearly naked refugees available throughout the stricken republic, should be ideal for

Postal Throng In Outing Saturday

New Castle Force Joins New Wilmington Group For Gala Program

HELD AT PARK IN NEW WILMINGTON

Close to 300 persons, employees of the New Castle and New Wilmington post offices and their families, participated Saturday in their first annual joint outing at New Wilmington's community park. Plans are to make the picnic an annual affair.

From 2 in the afternoon until 9 at night the postal throng enjoyed the fellowship that abounded and the sports that featured the day. Prizes were awarded winners.

A picnic dinner was served shortly after 6 by a committee designated for the purpose—the affair was sponsored by New Castle carriers with the assistance of other employees.

Present were Postmaster Richard A. Steen and Mrs. Steen of New Castle and Postmaster E. M. Newton and Mrs. Newton of New Wilmington.

Carriers Sponsored It: William E. "Ted" Clark, New

Castle carrier, was general chairman of the picnic and master of ceremonies for the night program, while Carroll Forrest, handled the sports. Clarence Gillespie, the transportation, John Wilson the food and Frank Hay supervised the table arrangements.

With General Chairman Clark on the general committee were Joe Quinn, George F. Mitchell, Clarence Reiber, Robert Maxwell and others of the local office.

Musical, horseshoes and swimming entertained the throng before dinner, while contests of many kind followed dinner.

Winners In Contests

Boys' race (six years and under)—Billy Leslie.

Girls' race (six and under)—Wanda Reiber.

Boys' race (10 and under)—Buddy Claire.

Girls' race (10 and under)—Marjory Maxwell.

Guessing contest—Mrs. Bert Hughes.

TAMMANY LEADER SAYS HE'LL WIN AGAINST DEWEY

tables were packed with reporters, special writers, "trained seals," artists and "job sisters." It was from a nearby room that he heard the clicking of scores of telegraph instruments. Now and then a radio announcer moved out of the room to do a broadcast. Messenger boys scurried back and forth with hand-written copy.

The first of the principals to enter the room was Hines. A gray-haired man of 61, he entered at 9:55 a. m., carrying his straw hat. He was accompanied by a battery of lawyers—his chief counsel, Lloyd P. Stryker, and attorneys Joseph Shallock, Harold Shapiro, Thomas M. Brassel and Maurice Selk.

Hines wore a slate blue suit, a blue tie, white shirt and black shoes conservatively dressed.

Not Worried

He didn't look worried. There was a bland, non-communistic look about his tanned countenance. He is a powerfully built man who plays a lot of golf to keep himself in trim. He has used to be a blacksmith and when he grips your hand, as he did mine, you have no doubt that there is a man who will stand up—physically at least—under the ordeal he faces. He looked fit.

Hines stood around, near defense table just before court opened, and shook a lot of hands. He grinned as he said, "Hello, Joe," or "Hello, Jack."

I asked him how he felt. "OK."

"Not a bit," he replied. "I'll beat them."

Someone remarked to Hines that he had lost weight. "I'm down to 186," he said. "But I'm OK. I'm in shape."

You'd think from the way he said it, that he was relishing this fight.

It was obvious, however, that he will make the fight pretty much alone. I couldn't detect another powerful Tammanyite in the crowded courtroom. "Jimmy's" big-time friends were staying away from the opening session at least.

"How do you feel about 'Dixie' Davis?" Hines was asked.

"He's all right—he's a fine boy."

"Oh, yes, he's OK."

Davis is the former "mouthpiece" of the "Dutch" Schultz gang who has turned state's evidence and is prepared to testify against Hines in the policy "racket" expose.

Dewey charges that Hines was the arch "fixer" for the mob. Dewey alleges Hines cooperated with the Schultz racket that took over the "policy" racket by violence and intimidation. He charges Hines entered into an agreement to intimidate, influence or bribe judicial officers in behalf of the Schultz syndicate.

Other Speakers

Jack Hanlon said he works out of town to pay taxes on property here. He said he does not see how the city can build at present. He said the only way revenue could be had would be to remodel it. He said he favors securing new industries for the city. He said the taxpayers will be the ones who pay and declared there are some who won't pay.

Mayor McGrath told Hanlon he had been interested with others in efforts to secure new industries.

Ed Hanlon said "we should do something to keep the working man here." He referred to improvements at Irwin. He said tax free offers should be made to industry. He referred to conditions in Sharon and Meadville.

Mayor McGrath told Hinesman he should realize that if industries don't pay taxes the property owners must pay them. He said industrial leaders here had informed him they were satisfied with their taxes. He said Meadville spent $209,000 on streets and sewers to serve an industry. He said he would be willing as mayor to do his part but said some cities have made offers that New Castle cannot meet.

Edward J. Davis said he was in favor of a bigger and stronger city if we can afford it. "If we can afford it I am in favor of a city-county building." He said the council had inside information (relating to industry) and said it might be best to postpone building a new city hall and contribute toward bringing new industries here. He meant the fact that so few property owners were present, he had come to hear the discussion on such a vital question.

The mayor told Davis he would be willing to do anything possible to help bring plants here.

Davis said that Henry Ford to come here he would not inquire how much the city hall was worth; but would ask about the city's water condition and railroad facilities.

Time Not Ripe

Theodore Casale said the city did not believe the time ripe in 1937 when conditions were good to build a new city building and said times now were worse. He asked why the 45 per cent could not be secured and put into swimming pools, housing and sewers.

Mayor McGrath said the problems relating to the 45 per cent grant for a city building would also have to be met were it secured for pools, housing and sewers. He told Casale the city proposes to ask PWA to approving a housing preliminary survey.

Harry Brown told council he was a taxpayer, out of work with prospects for getting employment poor. He said he was opposed to asking for the grant except for something absolutely necessary. He said the national money system is wrong and said people who have money invest it only in bonds.

Ed Stevenson proposed that the city remodel the building and remove the treasury office from the lower floor front and secure a $500 monthly rental.

E. E. Love went on record as representing the bricklayers, stone-masons and plasterers who, he said, favor a new city building.

William Erk, telephoned from Wheeland where he was employed to say that he is opposed to a new city building.

Joe Kallie said he believes the present building is large enough.

Thomas Kennelly said he is opposed to building a new city building now and said corporations should be relieved of some taxes.

Following Kennelly's remarks, council adjourned until Thursday. No resolution asking for a grant and approval of preliminary plans for a building was introduced.

NO ACTION TAKEN BY CITY COUNCIL ON NEW CITY HALL

a firm had offered to rent the treasurer's office at a rental of $500.00 per month.

F. P. Genkinger asked: "Is it necessary to have a new city building?"

The mayor: "No."

Genkinger: "Then why build it? Is it good business to have empty rooms?"

Alexander: "We are using the rooms."

Genkinger: "If you want a new building take the Max Ludwig building at one half the cost. Do you have to repay the 45 per cent grant?"

Alexander: "I feel we will, individually."

Genkinger: "This town is getting smaller. Why build a new building?"

Genkinger then referred to the Cascade street job and said that before the city finishes with a new city hall it will cost $250,000.

Genkinger: "You are yelling about a fire and sell it. It is all right to say 'Put up a building' but I would like to see something coming back."

Alexander told Genkinger he had as much to do with the federal government does here as city council.

Lost On Golf Course

Genkinger alleged the city has lost money on the golf course and Cascade park then asserted Max Ludwig made money at his golf course.

Alexander: "Then we need a new manager?"

Genkinger: "No, make a farm out of it."

Alexander: "I realize your knowledge of construction is worthwhile and I would like to have you know the city has made no decision yet on a city hall."

Genkinger: "No one who pays taxes wants it."

Mayor McGrath: "Yes there are."

Genkinger: "I mean the people who pay annually $3,000 or $4,000 taxes."

He then asserted a firm would leave town unless their rent was cut down.

The mayor then declared the city has cut its overhead and told of paying about four percent less for bonds than previously and added that $50,000 had been restored to city employees without raising the millage.

"I only wish you and some good citizens would give the same help on some other problems," Alexander said to Genkinger.

Union High School Alumni Picnic Is Planned August 18

Annual Outing Will Be Held At Township School House This Month

Final arrangements have been made and committees chosen for the annual outing for members of the Union township high school alumni, to be held on Thursday, August 18, at the township high school building.

Those on the various committees include Bill Reeh, John Hendley, Jane Davis, Ellen Melnyk, Kate Tebay, Agnes Duncan, Agnes Glenn, Laura Thompson, Helen Cox and Ellen Hawkins Loston.

A basket picnic will be served at 5:30 o'clock and will be followed by a sports program and dancing at 8 o'clock. Hugh Hannon and his orchestra will furnish music for the entertainment.

Present and former high school teachers, principals, supervisors and pupils will attend the event.

statesmen at Evian are trying to do today.

Strange fates awaited them. Three thousand arrived at Bizerta, in French Tunisia. Exchanging steps for the desert, they enlisted in the Foreign Legion. Some settled in Corsica, some in South America. Some, as might have been expected from the crazy, crowded tuns in which they sailed, were shipwrecked.

The Russians who wandered to France are a story in themselves. Four hundred thousand of them live there. There are Russians farming in Gascony. There is a Russian peasant and a German general, who never handled a plough in his life before, who are partners in a farm. There are, or were, French small-holders who are primitive Kalmucks from wild Mongolia, who worship Buddha and are efficient milkers.

The landlords supply these strange refugees with everything they need, but they speak little French and they have to wait months for the periodical visit of the government inspectors to make a request for such a simple thing as some extra saucapans.

In three districts of Paris there are whole streets where none but Russians live. They are poor, and their average earnings might be only $20 a month.

There were the Armenians in Asia Minor. The Turkish soldiery rounded up armies of them in their villages and drove them like cattle into the desert. From half to two-thirds of the long, stumbling columns died on the way.

There were the Greeks who poured out of Asia Minor when the Turks came to Smyrna. They were shot and bayoneted as they waited in waiting masses on the quays. Twelve thousand people were burned to death when the city was set on fire.

All the world hoped that when the first rush of post-war refugees had subsided the cruel custom of turning people out of their homes would never be practiced again. But it was not to be. Rather did the custom spread from country to country, each decade bringing its new installment of misery.

After a little pause, Spaniards began to troop out of Spain before the wrath of Primo de Rivera. Then came the even more dreadful days of the Spanish Civil War. And then Italy before the wrath of Mussolini. And in 1933 Hitler began to persecute the Jews.

All these tragic evictions and forced migrations constitute the problem the Evian Refugee Conference is dealing with today—the terrible and seemingly insoluble problem of finding homes for these cruelly treated human beings before starvation, disease and homesickness take their inevitable toll.

Evidence to show that Communists have gained a strong foothold in the WPA theater project is scheduled to be presented.

As the committee resumed hearings, John P. Frey, chairman of the metal trades division of the American Federation of Labor promised to supply the committee with names of additional Communists working in the labor movement.

Frey, who on Saturday submitted names of hundreds of persons he said are Communists active in John L. Lewis' C.I.O., was to be called upon for proof of his assertion that the Communists have officially endorsed the C.I.O.

Frey, who declared that the A. F. of L. is fighting Communism to prevent the possibility of a dictatorship, was expected to take two days to finish presentation of the results of his long investigation into Communism in the labor movement.

Firemen were called out twice over the weekend for small fires.

Saturday afternoon at 2:05 o'clock, they were called to the home of O. Allison and Gabriel Christopher at 421-421 1/2 Electric street, where an electric iron had been left turned on. It burned through the ironing board and fell onto the floor beneath. The blaze was put out with a bucket of water. The loss was small.

At 1:15 p. m., Sunday, firemen were summoned to Highland avenue, where the floor mat in the car of Ray Dotan, of 842 Marshall avenue had caught fire, due to the emergency brake having been left on. The damage was slight.

statesmen at Evian are trying to do today.

Strange fates awaited them. Three thousand arrived at Bizerta, in French Tunisia. Exchanging steps for the desert, they enlisted in the Foreign Legion. Some settled in Corsica, some in South America. Some, as might have been expected from the crazy, crowded tuns in which they sailed, were shipwrecked.

The Russians who wandered to France are a story in themselves. Four hundred thousand of them live there. There are Russians farming in Gascony. There is a Russian peasant and a German general, who never handled a plough in his life before, who are partners in a farm. There are, or were, French small-holders who are primitive Kalmucks from wild Mongolia, who worship Buddha and are efficient milkers.

The landlords supply these strange refugees with everything they need, but they speak little French and they have to wait months for the periodical visit of the government inspectors to make a request for such a simple thing as some extra saucapans.

In three districts of Paris there are whole streets where none but Russians live. They are poor, and their average earnings might be only $20 a month.

There were the Armenians in Asia Minor. The Turkish soldiery rounded up armies of them in their villages and drove them like cattle into the desert. From half to two-thirds of the long, stumbling columns died on the way.

There were the Greeks who poured out of Asia Minor when the Turks came to Smyrna. They were shot and bayoneted as they waited in waiting masses on the quays. Twelve thousand people were burned to death when the city was set on fire.

All the world hoped that when the first rush of post-war refugees had subsided the cruel custom of turning people out of their homes would never be practiced again. But it was not to be. Rather did the custom spread from country to country, each decade bringing its new installment of misery.

After a little pause, Spaniards began to troop out of Spain before the wrath of Primo de Rivera. Then came the even more dreadful days of the Spanish Civil War. And then Italy before the wrath of Mussolini. And in 1933 Hitler began to persecute the Jews.

All these tragic evictions and forced migrations constitute the problem the Evian Refugee Conference is dealing with today—the terrible and seemingly insoluble problem of finding homes for these cruelly treated human beings before starvation, disease and homesickness take their inevitable toll.

school children in the New York area is also expected to be the subject of testimony.

Evidence to show that Communists have gained a strong foothold in the WPA theater project is scheduled to be presented.

As the committee resumed hearings, John P. Frey, chairman of the metal trades division of the American Federation of Labor promised to supply the committee with names of additional Communists working in the labor movement.

Frey, who on Saturday submitted names of hundreds of persons he said are Communists active in John L. Lewis' C.I.O., was to be called upon for proof of his assertion that the Communists have officially endorsed the C.I.O.

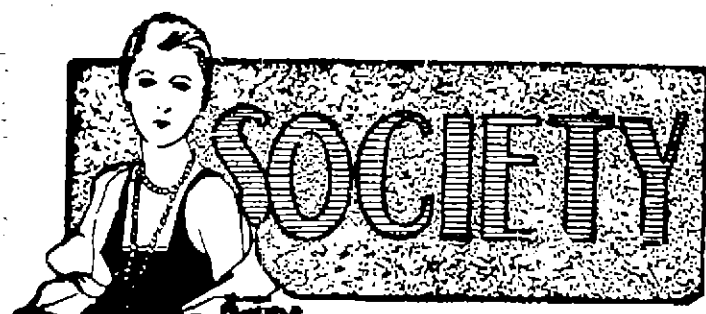

Frey, who declared that the A. F. of L. is fighting Communism to prevent the possibility of a dictatorship, was expected to take two days to finish presentation of the results of his long investigation into Communism in the labor movement.

TWO SMALL FIRES OCCUR OVER SUNDAY

Firemen were called out twice over the weekend for small fires.

Saturday afternoon at 2:05 o'clock, they were called to the home of O. Allison and Gabriel Christopher at 421-421 1/2 Electric street, where an electric iron had been left turned on. It burned through

FRIENDLY SISTERS CLUB HONOR MEMBER

Members of the Friendly Sisters Quilting club, surrounded one of their group, Mrs. Martha Morris on Sampson street, to tender her a party as a medium of celebrating her birthday anniversary, which fell due Sunday, August 14.

The occasion was a complete surprise to the honoree, and after all had arrived, entertainment was provided for the guests. They later served a delicious lunch which they had prepared, and the birthday cake was especially attractive. It was baked by Mrs. David Sumner and decorated by Mrs. E. B. Ray. A social time ensued, and at the hour of departing, Mrs. Morris was presented with a huge bouquet from the club.

Mrs. Louise Winger will entertain at their next regular meeting, the date to be announced.

Nels-Johnson Reunion Sunday.

The Nels-Johnson reunion was held Sunday afternoon at Cascade park, with guests present from New Castle and Harlansburg, as well as further points.

Plans were made for a corn roast for the group, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson at Harlansburg, the date to be announced later.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jenkins of Scrubbers, O.; Bobbie McGinty of Pittsburgh; Bertha Jinks and Master Herbie Jinks, Edwin Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McConnell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. William Doloughan and family, all from Harlansburg.

American Legion Auxiliary.

Plans are completed for the card and bingo party to be held at the Legion Home this evening at 8:30 o'clock by the American Legion Auxiliary and their friends.

Those on the committee in charge include Mrs. Ida Suber as chairlady, assisted by Mrs. Alice Cleaver, Mary Wilson, Mrs. Anna Jones, Lillian Hartman and Mrs. Gertrude Speed.

Grand Army Ladies

Grand Army Ladies will have a breakfast outing on Tuesday morning at 9 a. m. in the grove of Cascade Park.

An all day quilting is called for September 6, in their regular assembly rooms, with the business period taking place at 2 p. m. sharp.

Neshannock Falls was the scene Saturday afternoon and evening of one of the merriest outings of the Johnson Bronze company employees and their families.

Approximately 1000 people enjoyed the festivities of the day. Early in the afternoon, races and contests were started. Refreshments were served throughout the day and following the sports activities in the afternoon, the picnic dinner was served. On this occasion special guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Flaherty and Mr. and Mrs. Max Donnelly.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the amateur contest in which the following were winners: Lorraine Julian, Joan Fesler, Corinne Amadio, Peter Farroce, John Corio and Hugh Dougherty. A bocce contest was also held, those winning were Albert Gause, D. Cicarelli, Luigi Bosco and Luigi Diotti. The Johnson Bronze girls' race winners were Eleanor Young, Lucille Canname and Josephine Carney.

Special Gifts.
Late in the afternoon, the distribution of special gifts took place. Those to receive gifts were Joe McGowan, Harry Brush, Mike DeCarbo, E. A. Lundeen, Woodrow Endress, J. ### Shenango U. P. Services End

Final 137th Anniversary
Services Take Place
On Sunday

DR. H. J. ROSE IS
MORNING SPEAKER

Inspiring services Sunday brought to a close Shenango U. P.'s three-day celebration of the congregation's 137th anniversary.

Dr. H. J. Rose of New Wilmington, synodical superintendent, brought the morning sermon, and Rev. T. L. Patton of the Lebanon church, West Middlesex, moderator of the Mercer Presbytery of which Shenango is a part, assisted in the administration of communion. There were 104 persons from the audience who took communion.

Two vocal solos, "The Holy City" and "Lead Kindly Light," were given by Miss Margaret Bird Shaw of Neshannock U. P. church. In the evening, Arthur Calvin, son of Rev. A. J. Calvin, presided over the Young People's service. The guest speaker was Prof. Walter Biberich of Westminster College, who had for his subject, "Look Backward, Forward, Upward." Miss Margaret Parks of Sharon sang "Just For Today" and "Abide With Me."

Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock the congregation had a picnic dinner at the church, followed by an historical meeting at 2:30. Mrs. Nancy McKee gave the history of the church. Special music was offered by Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Fulton of the Plainville U. P. church.

Greetings from Mrs. Mary McCreary of New Castle, widow of Henry McCreary who was an elder at Shenango, and from Mrs. R. W. McGranahan of Beaver, widow of a former Shenango pastor, were brought to the members. Letters from two sons of the church who have become ministers were read. Rev. Howard McClintock is assistant pastor of the Church of the Covenant, Cleveland. Rev. James McDonald is pastor of a church in Albany, Oregon. Letters of greeting from Rev. L. S. Clark of York, N. Y., Rev. K. W. McFarland who is preaching at Delany, N. Y., and W. B. Anderson of Philadelphia were also read.

Miss Dorothy Calvin was the accompanist for most of the singing. Beautiful flowers decorated the church for the anniversary occasion. Many of the platelets were the gift of W. E. Perver.

Testimony of witnesses at the senate civil liberties committee hearing in Washington discloses that Republic Steel corporation employees who led the "back-to-work" movement at Canton, O., during the "little steel" strike in 1937 were paid twice to four times their normal wages during the month of June although none of them worked in the plant that month. John G. Stewart, a Republic roller, testified that he was active in the "back-to-work" movement and received $1,223.94 in June, 1937, although his average monthly earning was $320.84.

MOTORCYCLE COP READS POETRY TO RECKLESS DRIVERS

(International News Service)
EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—Motorcycle Patrolman Harry Wall, of East St. Louis has a novel way of impressing on a motorist that he should drive carefully.

When Wall stops motorists, he doesn't always take them to police headquarters. Some, usually those committing their first offense, are asked to read a safety poem Wall hands them.

Published by a safety organization the poem is entitled, "Jackie—Son of a Hard-Boiled Cop." It relates the story of a policeman's son who was killed by an automobile. It ends with this verse:

"Well, Mister, I'll not give you a ticket
I don't want to 'pinch' any one.
But I'd drive this motorcycle through
To protect another man's son"

Central Labor Union To Assist Wm. Green

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15—The New Castle Central Labor Union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor was requested today by President William Green to set up Wage and Hour committees to help make effective the new Wage and Hour Act passed last session.

Such a proposal went forward from President Green to Central Labor Union located in 792 cities of the country. Accompanying the letter was a booklet "explaining the laws provisions in simple language. The Green letter and pamphlet were described by the Federation as "a drive to help enforce the new Wage and Hour Law and to make its provisions known to the widest possible number of unorganized workers so that they can take advantage of its benefits.

Miss Marian Laberman of Weirton, W. Va., has arrived here to spend her vacation period at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, West Falls street.

Have You Read?

"Master Kung," Carl Crow's biography of the sage Confucius, is written with wisdom, humor and sympathy. Confucius was no dry-boned intellectual, but a man of human and kindly qualities, known to his intimates as a dutiful son, a dismal failure as a husband, an honest official, a lover of ginger, good wine and well-cooked food. He died stripped of wealth and influence, mournfully convinced that he would be immediately forgotten. Mr. Crow is an American with long experience of the Orient, first as correspondent for the United Press and later as head of an advertising and merchandising agency. Last year his earlier book, "Four Hundred Million Customers," was a reflection of his experience in China. Both books are in the public library.

Westminster Gets Bicycle Speeder

May Be Good Idea To Put Him In The Backfield And Give Him His Bike

NEW WILMINGTON, Aug. 15.—A 17-year-old Westminster college student, Robert Erzinger, will cycle 600 miles to New Wilmington from his home in Peoria, Illinois, this fall, to enter the college's freshman class. This summer, accompanied by another Peoria youth, Erzinger rode 1800 miles on a tandem bicycle through the Great Lakes district in two weeks. By sleeping in farmers' barns and in cemeteries, the cyclists made the 1800 miles on less than twenty-five dollars. Last summer, Erzinger cycled over 1,000 miles in Scotland and England.

"Cycling has fit all over hitch-hiking," young Erzinger thinks, after taking three days to hitch-hike from Peoria to New Wilmington, where he began his cycle trip. "I can make 200 miles a day on a cycle, and only 150 traveling day and night hitch-hiking."

By riding a few feet behind a fast moving truck in Michigan, aided by the suction of the vehicle, the boys averaged forty miles an hour through level country.

Under Coach G. C. Washburn, Westminster expects to schedule from eight to ten dual meets with district teams, including a group meet at Geneva college, May 20, 1939. Approximately ten swimming meets will be scheduled, with Grove City and Allegheny already on the list.

Cross country will be revived this fall as a part of the side-show during the football season, bringing the total of varsity sports to seven: football, basketball, track, swimming, golf, tennis and cross-country.

Prof. Finds Money But Cant Spend It
Westminster Professor Finds Revolutionary Money In Old Storeroom

NEW WILMINGTON, Aug. 15.—Who knows, your attic or old storeroom might make you rich. Dr. Donald Matthews, of Westminster college's biology department, in cleaning out the drawers of an old abandoned storeroom in the college's Science Hall found $1,012 in old Revolutionary War money.

A Civil War newspaper, printed on old wall-paper because of newspaper shortage, and an invaluable collection of fossils.

The Revolutionary War money, printed in Virginia, included bills of one-thousand, eight, and four dollars denominations. Discovered also in the library storeroom was a library formerly used as a "floating school" on the Allegheny river shortly after the Civil War.

Short Talks On Advertising Advertising Lowers Prices

ADVERTISING LOWERS PRICES
Number 10

Are you willing to spend 45 cents to save $15. Of course you are—if you know the facts. Sometimes advertising performs a miracle like that.

Ten years ago, a certain camera sold for $30. It was advertised extensively, sales increased and overhead costs were reduced. Now, with larger production, the manufacturer is able to operate more economically and to sell a better camera for $15. The advertising cost amounts to 45 cents for each camera. The saving to the customer is $15.

In a similar way, advertising has helped to lower prices in many other specific cases. Yet there seems to be a common impression that advertising represents an extra cost, something that must be added to the price of what you buy.

Everybody knows that advertising costs money and that it is used to help sell goods. Less known is the fact that good advertising sells goods so well that it is the cheapest way of selling them. This is one of the reasons why it is possible to sell well-advertised goods at a lower price than if they were not advertised.

Then there is the other important reason. As advertising builds the sales volume of a company faster and greater than any other method, it makes large scale manufacturing possible, and that reduces the cost of making each article. When there is competition, which there usually is, manufacturers and dealers lower their prices as rapidly as they can.

In this way, consumers get the benefit of the savings that advertising effects in the costs of selling and manufacturing.

When you see thousands of dollars spent for a single advertisement or a single radio broadcast, it is only natural to assume that you have to pay for it when you buy the advertised article. But few people realize how little this cost really is when spread over the large number of units sold through the advertisement, and how large a saving this makes in the total cost. On canned food, the average cost of advertising is less than one-half cent per can. On one of the most widely advertised soft drinks the advertising cost is less than one-fiftieth of a cent per glass!

Lumping together all the advertising in the country, the total expenditures amount to less than two per cent of the value of all goods sold. This is very small in comparison with other selling and distributing costs. The Department of Commerce estimates that in 1935 the total cost of distribution was 23 per cent. So it appears that the total amount spent for advertising is only one-fourteenth of the whole cost of distribution.

If no money were spent for advertising, the cost of selling and distributing would be far higher than it is now, and prices would have to be higher. More important still, a smaller volume of goods would be sold and produced, and there would be less employment, and a smaller share of the world's goods for each of us. Advertising puts money in your pocket.

Mexico Awakes To Tourist Service
Prof. Biggs Notices Marked Improvement In Convenience For Tourists

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Aug. 15.—Mexico City, 760 miles south of the border, is now only a two-day drive over a completely hard-surfaced highway, according to Prof. Wallace R. Biggs, Westminster college journalism head, back from his second trip into central Mexico in the past three years.

Changes noticed by the journalism head were: dozens of tourist camps where there were none in 1935, a surplus of deluxe gasoline stations in place of the "gas out of a tin-can" type of former years; English-speaking attendants at all stations; and fortifications every 25 miles along the Pan-American highway for the protection of tourists.

"Mexico is still a 'highway thru the jungle,' according to Mr. Biggs, who has made many side-trips to Indian villages. 'You can buy ice cream along the highway, but 25 miles away are hundreds of natives who never saw a piece of ice.'"

The government's administrative organizations at Washington were denounced the other day before the American Bar Association as "alphabet boards." We had been under the impression that some of them must be "weegee" boards.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Good Progress Is Seen On Playground

New Site Near Progressive Club Rooms Will Provide Plenty Of Play Space

Good progress is seen on the new playground being constructed on the property near the Progressive club rooms, 115 Montgomery avenue, in the Seventh ward. According to President Albert J. Dottle, of the Progressive club, this organization is the sponsor of the new play site and is also in charge of all work.

According to Dottle the new playground will be equipped for tennis, baseball, boxing, mullin, football and ice skating. At the present time the tennis court is rapidly nearing completion.

John Russo, Montgomery avenue, and Albert LaPore, South Third street, have donated the use of their trucks to the club to haul earth and clay for the new playground. John Brutel, local leader, has donated his services in draining the site and furnishing needed ashes. Many merchants of the ward have been exceedingly generous in donating money to be used in the purchase of equipment for the new playground.

Trainmen Having Picnic Thursday

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Auxiliary, Lodges 955 and 587, and their families will have a picnic on Thursday, August 18, at 6 o'clock in Cascade Park.

The Mabel Wilson Auxiliary talked over final plans at the regular meeting last Wednesday. Mrs. Ruth Boalick and Mrs. George Emerick are in charge. Meat, coffee, cream, rolls and butter are to be furnished. The picnicers will bring their own baskets.

MRS. GEORGE COOK

ENTERTAINS CLASS

Mrs. George Cook, Newell avenue, was a pleasing hostess to members of the S. C. W. Bible class, recently, when they gathered in her home for a regular meeting.

A short business session was conducted by the president. Following this meeting, the hours were spent socially with a delicious luncheon being served by Mrs. Cook. She was aided by Mrs. Charles Dungan, Mrs. Charles Thompson, and Mrs. Horchler.

Celebration In Full Swing Today

Italian-American Citizens Celebrate Feast Of The Assumption Here

Annual celebration of the Feast of the Assumption is being held today in the Seventh ward by the Italian-American residents of the district. Events got under way this morning when the Columbus Society band under the direction of Victor Gaspare, paraded the streets of the ward.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Columbus band will present a public concert at a bandstand erected on the property adjoining the Columbus hall, South Liberty street. The celebration will be closed tonight at 10:30 o'clock by a brilliant fireworks display. The fireworks show will be at the new Liberty street playground.

For the celebration today and tonight the portion of South Liberty street where the activities will take place has been gaily lighted with many vari-colored lights.

Band Concert In Ward Successful

WPA Orchestra Begins Celebration In Seventh Ward With Public Concert

Many residents of the Seventh ward district went to the Liberty street park, corner of Darlington avenue and North Liberty street, Sunday evening for a public band concert, given by the WPA orchestra.

The concert was given as a starter for the celebration now being staged in the ward. Ben Shulansky, director of the orchestra was in charge, and he was aided by Harry Hammond, co-director.

A mixed program of semi-classical and popular music was furnished for the event. This concert was held under the sponsorship of the Italian-American committee in charge of the Feast of the Assumption celebration.

LUNCHEON MEETING OF GARDEN CLUB CHANGED ONE DAY

Announcement was made today that the luncheon meeting for members of the Mahoning Garden club, which was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon will be postponed one day. The luncheon will be held at the home of Mrs. George Cook, Newell avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

TEAMS WANT GAMES TO FINISH SEASON

Dr. Mellinger To Open New Offices In Temple Building

Local Optometrist In New Location Here; Has Had Wide Experience

We are pleased to announce the opening of the new professional offices of Dr. C. Lee Mellinger, optometrists in the Temple building, rooms 414-15. Dr. Mellinger has been engaged in the practice of optometry for the past 20 years, and has always conducted his business along the lines of highest professional ethics.

He is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Horology and Optics, and has taken post graduate courses at the Rochester School of Optometry, and Ohio State university, and has served as an officer of the Pennsylvania Optometry society.

For 15 years Dr. Mellinger conducted an exclusive optometric office of his own in Scottsdale, Pa.

For brief periods during the absences of the regular optometrists he conducted the optometric practices of Dr. Cryens in Pittsburgh, the private practice of Dr. Henry Heck of Pittsburgh, and the optical department of Gimbel Brothers in Pittsburgh.

During the years from 1927 to 1933, Dr. Mellinger was associated with the John Hughes company, 641 Liberty avenue, Pittsburgh. While in this connection Dr. Mellinger received the most valuable experience of his career, and the names of many of the leading professional men of Pittsburgh, many high executives in large commercial and industrial circles, and many men high in political circles, are among the list of those whom he fitted with glasses. During this period Dr. Mellinger conducted his Scottsdale business by appointments in evenings and Saturdays.

For the past five years Dr. Mellinger has been associated with one of the leading jewelry stores in New Castle. The new optometry law, recently passed, and upheld by the supreme court of Pennsylvania in a test case of the Pennsylvania State Board of Optometry against Gimbel Brothers of Philadelphia, makes it illegal for a registered optometrist to be in the employ of any commercial organization. The license of any registered optometrist is subject to revocation unless he is in business in his own name, or in an exclusive optometric association.

The thousands of patients whom he has fitted in New Castle during the past five years will be assured of the same painstaking care in the fitting of their glasses as they have received in the past.

Sportsmen Enjoy Picnic Saturday

MERCER, Pa., Aug. 15.—Five-thousand sportsmen of the 10 county sportsmen clubs, their families and guests attended the Round-Up at the Mercer Fair grounds, Saturday. The event was the first round-up of the clubs.

The gathering was addressed by Judge George H. Rowley and members of the district and state game commissions. Music was furnished by the W. P. Symmes. The sports program of the day consisted of skeet and trap shooting, rifle and pistol shooting, bait and fly casting, archery, horse shoe pitching. Coffee was furnished free to attendants. The event is stated to be the record gathering of sportsmen in western Pennsylvania this year.

Doomed Slayer Asks For Music

(International News Service) OSSING, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Due to march to the electric chair at Sing Sing Thursday night, John (Red) Rylovicz has requested prison authorities for a few hours' musical interlude on the phonograph to brighten his final days. # GUILTY!

NOT one smash-up in a hundred is purely accidental. Somebody broke a traffic law made to prevent the very thing that happened. That somebody stands convicted of a crime against his fellow man.

Scenes such as the above are all too common. Drastic measures must—and are—being taken to stop this ruthless killing and maiming of human beings on the highways of our State. Local and state authorities are determined to punish fully each and every offender against the laws regulating the operation of motor vehicles.

Every time you get behind the wheel of a car, decide that you will observe every rule of good, common sense and careful driving. Make up your mind to concentrate on what you are doing—as long as you are doing it.

General Assembly Reconvenes Tonight In Harrisburg

Probe Suspended, To Work On Bills

Five Proposed Amendments To The Constitution On Calendar Tonight

ANOTHER COMMISSION FOR OIL INDUSTRY

By GEORGE FISHER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Aug. 15.—Pennsylvania legislators reconvened tonight for the fourth week of the special session with light calendars and a "let's get going" feeling in both the Senate and house.

A decision probably will be reached on the time and length of the recess the legislature is expected to take.

When the legislature quit last Tuesday leaders were of the opinion the lawmakers would be kept in session this week and next before any recess was taken. The recess would be for the purpose of giving the legislators a vacation of several weeks, perhaps a month, until after the supreme court has passed on the constitutionality of the two acts passed earlier in the session covering the house investigation of campaign charges made against the Earle administration.

With the investigation delayed temporarily at least, until a later date, committees of both branches will devote their time to further consideration of measures covering other points in the call for the special session. Included in this category are measures dealing with the anthracite industry of the state.

A series of four bills have been introduced in the house for the anthracite coal industry commission. These measures are being studied by the affected interests of the hard coal region. The United Mine Workers are giving them close study, according to Rep. John J. Downey, Schuylkill, chairman of the house mines and mining committee. Before any hearings are scheduled by the committee, Downey says, he wants to give all interests an opportunity to examine the bills that have been introduced.

Five Amendments
On the senate calendar tonight for second reading is a series of five proposed amendments to the state constitution. They would provide a future ban on a diversion of motor funds, tax exemptions on real property, a graduated income tax, civil service for state employees and permit debts for building or public works if the anticipated revenue is pledged for the payment of the debt incurred.

The Senate also has up for second reading a bill not to pay legislative per diem employees during period of recess and another to authorize compromise of delinquent taxes on lands and the penalties and interest before the property is put up for sale.

Concurrence by the senate of house changes to three bills also is expected at tonight's session. These measures included two for the expansion of capital park and another makes the state responsible for the medical care of persons on relief.

The house calendar includes final action on two bills of Sen. Edward J. Thompson, D., Centre, which would permit school districts to construct buildings through the help of the general state authority. Senator Thompson estimates that $75,000,000 in new construction could be started under these two bills. Correction of typographical errors prevented final action of these measures last week.

A bill to make valid actions of the 1937 commission to study the oil industry is on the first reading calendar. Both houses have approved a bill to create a new commission with an appropriation of $20,000. The stipend court some months ago invalidated the creation of the 1937 commission because the legislature established the body through a resolution instead of an act.

NEW CASTLE MAN IS SENTENCED AT BUTLER

BUTLER, Pa., Aug. 15.—Walter Woski, New Castle widower, entered a plea to driving while intoxicated, before Judge John H. Wilson today. He was deprived of his driving license for a year, and sentenced to pay $100 fine and costs. He was committed to jail until the terms of the sentence are complied with. Woski was arrested at the junction of 422 and 68 last Thursday night by a motor policeman.

OFFICE IS OPENED TO SPUR WPA PROJECTS

BUTLER, Pa., Aug. 15.—The Federal government has opened a temporary office in Butler county for the purpose of giving prompt aid in filing applications for PWA loans and grants in Butler, Lawrence and Mercer counties.

The new office, on the site of the tuberculosis sanatorium project, two miles west, will be in charge of E. N. Osborne, a PWA engineer. It will be open for a limited time only.

County Council Elects Officers

CIO Group Rescinds Indorsement Of Democratic Candidates

STATE COUNCIL WANTS GUARANTEES

Lawrence County Industrial Union Council, at their regular meeting at the Clendenin hall, Saturday elected the following officers: J. H. Grittle, president; Arthur F. Johnston, vice president; Steve Wheale, secretary; John Morris, financial secretary; Andy Kirol, sergeant at arms; trustees, Mrs. Mills and Victor Bordorf.

Acting under advice from the state CIO council, the local council rescinded an action of a week ago endorsing the candidates of the Democratic party in the county and state. Like the Pennsylvania Industrial Council, the local CIO group will endorse no candidates for the fall election until and only after certain grievances have been cleared up.

Local labor leaders state that they are waiting to see what action their state body takes. CIO leaders in the state admit the necessity of fighting reactionaries, nevertheless they declare that the administration headed by Gov. Earle must institute a complete series of reforms and display a complete reversal of attitude on many points before the rank and file of the union memberships will actively and enthusiastically back the state democratic ticket in November.

Locally, labor leaders state that the Democratic party expects the wholehearted support of organized labor, yet there are no organized labor representation on the local Relief Review Board, the local representative of organized labor in the area. WPA labor Relations Office, and only one representative on the Lawrence County Public Assistance board. These boards govern and control the very lives of practically forty per cent of the population of Lawrence County.

Church Picnic At Rock Springs

St. Andrew's church Sunday school picnic was held at Rock Springs Park on Friday. About 150 attended, going and returning by bus and automobiles. It took the form of a basket picnic. All sat down to a splendid dinner and supper. In the afternoon there were two mushball games between the married and single men. The first game ended in a tie, and the second game was won by the single men by the score of 17 to 11. The feature of the mushball games was the aptitude of Rev. S. Black, the pastor, and Tom Evans, slamming out home runs, a la Babe Ruth.

Races and other amusements were indulged in the afternoon. Primary race was won by Thomas Evans, Jr. Primary girls by Miss Zena; race, girls 8 to 10 won by Patricia Smith; cracker and whistle contest, Richard Hetrick; pop drinking through nipple, 12 to 14, Eleanor Smith and Perry Riley; boys swimming race, 12 to 14, Bill Falls; newspaper puzzle for men was won by Chester Hetrick and Edwin Gregor; ball throwing contest for women, Mrs. Lawrence Jones and Mrs. Chester Hetrick. Then there was a scramble for candy kisses and suckers; also a lucky free drawing for all of twenty prizes.

The committee of arrangements was Lewis Dean, Dave Riley, Mrs. Dave Riley, Mrs. Lillian Falls; sports committee, Francis Gregor, Jack Hittings, Richard Hittch and Norman Lewis. The children were delighted with the bus ride to and from the picnic grounds. Rev. S. Black and Jake Hetrick, Sunday school superintendent, report that the weather was delightful, and that all declared they had a wonderful time.

PITTSBURGH WOMAN VISITOR AT LIBRARY

Elizabeth Randies, former resident of this city, now living in Pittsburgh, was in the city Saturday, and made a complete visit of the new local library building.

Miss Randies is at the present time librarian of the Western Theological Seminary library, in Pittsburgh.

We picked up a funny magazine today. Nine story illustrations, and not one pictured a man pointing a pistol at another.

AGREEMENT REACHED ON DAMAGE CLAIMS FOR PORTERSVILLE

What was believed to be the last barrier between Butler county, county commissioners and residents of Portersville, toward the widening of route 422 through Portersville, was removed Saturday, when an agreement was reached regarding damages.

The agreement provides that Butler county will "go along" to the extent of $18,000 toward the payment of damage claims within the borough limits and likewise take care of all damages resulting to abutting properties outside the borough but on the right-of-way of the new thoroughfare.

In turn the state has agreed to "go along" toward the paying of the damages within the borough to the extent of $8,500, the borough to raise the rest estimated at between $8,000 and $10,000.

News Briefs From City Hall

Owing to complaints of youths playing cards, police in cruiser cars Sunday afternoon went to Pearson and Taylor streets and ordered six youths to report to Mayor Charles E. McGrath today.

There were no persons injured in auto accidents within the city limits over the week-end.

Police received a complaint today that a cow, staked in a field north of the Shenango Pottery, bellows at night.

BOY IS DROWNED IN FRENCH CREEK

MEADVILLE, Pa., Aug. 15.—Missing since afternoon, 10-year-old Lyle Beebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Beebe, R. D., Venango borough, was found drowned in French creek, eight miles north of here, late last night.

Early in the afternoon the boy had been seen playing alone along the creek.

Sight From Dead

The Rev. U. E. Harding ... sees with dead woman's eye

Several days ago Margaret Carr, 80, of Berkeley, Cal., died after agreeing to give her eyes to two blind sufferers. And now, the two blind men look upon the world again through the eyes of Mrs. Carr. One of the patients, the Rev. U. E. Harding, an Oregon minister, is shown above. The delicate operations, transplanting the cornea of the dead woman's eyes to those of the Rev. Harding, were performed in San Francisco.

HOTEL CLERK HELD UP AND ROBBED

MEADVILLE, Pa., Aug. 15.—Police today continued their probe of a hold-up reported early yesterday by Ernest Wooddell, night clerk at the Kepler hotel.

Wooddell said he was forced at the point of a pistol to hand over the contents of the cash drawer, about $300, to a man and a woman. He told the police that the couple came to the desk at about 3:45 a. m. and asked for rooms.

County Officials And Attorneys At Picnic Saturday

Lively Ball Game And Other Amusements Feature Outing At Grove City

Over one hundred attorneys, county officials and employees enjoyed a good time at a picnic held at Grove City Community Park on Saturday. The outstanding feature by way of amusements was a ball game between the attorneys and court house hikers. It resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 13 to 9.

The attorneys were not satisfied at the close of the ninth inning, but instead of playing another game, it was agreed that two more innings should be played, and there is now an unsettled dispute. The attorneys claim that they captured the last two innings by a total score of 16 to 15, while the court house hikers claim the score at the end of the eleventh inning was 15 to 15. While the court house hikers claim the result at the end of the eleventh inning was a tie, they claim that they really are the winners, since they won the nine inning game.

Following the ball game there were a lot of contests for prizes, ten in all being distributed.

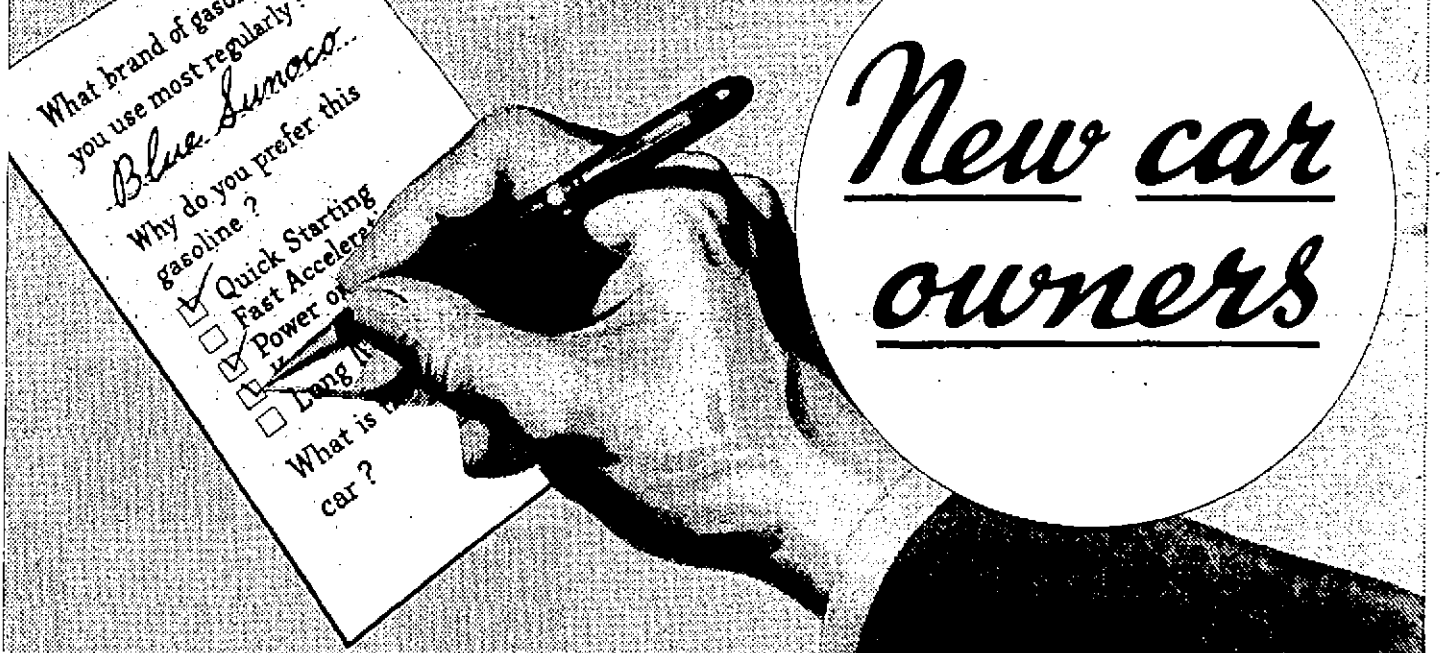

Swimming, bathing, bicycle riding and other sports occupied the time until toward evening when some fine watermelons were served. The dinner consisted of ham and cheese sandwiches, baked beans, potato salad, pickles, tomatoes, olives, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Preparations had been made to serve 125 plates, but there was an abundance left over. This was given to County Welfare Director E. O. Reed for distribution at the County Home.

CHIEF ENGINEER AT POLK PASSES AWAY

FRANKLIN, Pa., Aug. 15.—George B. Hayes, 63, chief engineer of the Polk State School from the time it was founded until his retirement two years ago, died at his home in Polk.

We asked the Postman to get the answer from America's most critical motorists...

Certified returns from thousands of car owners in 140 cities gave

From your own experience, we think you'll agree that motorists are most critical of engine performance, power and mileage when their cars are new.

Thousands of these critical new car owners, in 140 cities, were asked which gasoline they preferred on the basis of actual performance. Blue Sunoco came out way ahead of any other gasoline—including those selling at premium prices—and led its nearest competitor by 51.5% more votes.

Since its performance won first place among owners of new cars with high compression engines, obviously, in older cars Blue Sunoco will be equally efficient. Test it in your car and see if you don't agree.

This survey was conducted in 11, earliest states by an independent organization. The replies received were submitted to Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery, certified public accountants, who prepared the above tabulation therefrom.

College Housing Shortage Looms

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Aug. 15.—A 50 per cent increase in the freshman class enrollment at Westminster college is causing a major housing crisis in the village of New Wilmington. The college faces the prospects of taking over from three to five residences in the town as housing quarters for an overflow enrollment.

As early as mid-summer all available dormitory rooms had been taken in the two women's dormitories; Hillside and Browne Hall, and in five cooperative houses owned by the college.

Eleven states are represented by students in the newly enrolling freshman class, as far west as California and east to Rhode Island, and as far south as Georgia.

Polish Event Draws Throng

U. S. Congressman Charles R. Eckert Is Speaker; Celebration Held Sunday

Polish Day was fittingly observed by more than 2,000 persons Sunday at a picnic grove in the vicinity of Mt. Jackson.

United States Congressman Charles R. Eckert delivered an interesting address on "High Ideals." He reminded the group to maintain high ideals in these trying times and to have faith in the American form of government. S. Lesniewicz, vice consul of the Republic of Poland, one of the feature speakers, urged his audience to be true Americans and yet remember Poland. S. T. Augustyn was master of ceremonies. William Jakowicz, president of Polish Central committee, and Secretary Dr. Henry J. Olzowski opened the program.

The program follows:
American and Polish national hymns.
Poem—"Wanda Maclos, St. Philip-James school."

Song, "Krakowiak"—A. Czackowska, L. Maciejewska, H. Gorzka and H. Kozioł, students of St. Philip-James school.

Declaration, "I Am A Sport"—S. Turkiewicz, St. Philip-James school.

Polish Songs—Group boys and girls of St. Philip-James church, directed by Miss Helen Dombrowski.

Declaration, "How Splendid Is Our Poland"—Wanda Maclos, sponsored by Association of Veterans of Polish Army.

Piano solo, "Polish Peasants"—Wanda Maclos.

Address—Honorable Charles R. Eckert, United States Congressman.

Marmion L. Lowe Concludes Series

Rev. Marmion L. Lowe concluded his series of Bible discourses Sunday in three services at the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle. The sermon subjects were "Christianity in a Changing World," "Christ the Most Unique Man of the Ages," and "Contradictions in the Bible."

At the morning service 28 new members were added to the tabernacle membership. Pastor R. J. Fredericks reports. Special music for the services of the day was provided by the girls trio of the McDonald Baptist church, Samuel Burrows and his daughter, May, able Scotch singers, the Munnell sisters and Marian Butler.

The next speaker to appear at the tabernacle beginning tonight at 7:30 is Rev. Howard C. Fulton, D.D., pastor of the Belden Avenue Baptist church of Chicago, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church of Buffalo. He will be heard each night at 7:30.

Cassius R. Balph
Named Sealer

Council met today in city hall and appointed Cassius R. Balph, Fairfield avenue, as sealer of weights and inspector of measures for the city. He will also do such work for the county. He was recommended by Mayor Charles E. McGrath. Councilman J. M. Rice offered the motion to concur in the mayor's recommendation. Councilman W. H. Dunlap offered the second. The appointment was unanimous. Balph succeeds the late James Rae.

Softball Tourney First Round Ends

Radiators, Nobils, N. Y. A.,
Reiters And Wabash
Bears Remain In Tourney

Large Crowds Witness
Games Sunday, Commissioner Crisci Leaves
For Chicago.

The first round of play in the City-County softball tournament has come to an end and finds the National Radiators, Nobils, Reiters, N. Y. A. and Wabash Bears still in the running. Today Commissioner Franklin R. Crisci left for Chicago together with Joe Goetz of Pittsburgh to attend a national softball convention in the Windy City.

There were four games played on Sunday. The B. V. M. team of Ellwood City did not show up to play the Wabash Bears at the Liberty Street field.

The crowds Sunday at the various games is indicative of the high interest in the tourney here. There were about 5,000 fans at the four games combined.

Nobils Take Park Gate
The Nobils came up with their second victory of the tourney, 6 to 3 over the Park Gate Indians of Ellwood City, and entered the second round. Gabby Kendra outpitched Sheeler of Ellwood City, he allowed only six hits. The Shoemen had 13 hits.

The Park Gates had the edge on the Nobils until the last of the eighth 3 to 2, when Manager Ialo Amodeo led off with a single. Len Turco singled and Kendra grounded to second and forced Amodeo. Colelio then singled and scored the tying run at 3-3. Jackie Jones then singled and Ted Turco batted out a double, with the bases loaded to score three more runs and enough to win the game.

The heavy hitters in the game were Tony "California" Nocera and Louie Colelio with three hits apiece. Fred Marcella was the supervisor of the game.

RADIATORS BUMP SPENCERS
The National Radiators bumped the Spencers again for a 7 to 1 count to enter the second round of the City-County softball tourney. Greg Ross did the pitching and held the Spencers to three hits.

Ross fanned nine men as the Reds breezed with an eight-hit attack off of Cy Carson and Dinks Lane. The leading hitters in the game were: Stone, with a triple, and Cowmadow with three hits.

The best for the losers was Kelley with a double and Jones and Wilton

U. Y. A. TRIPS WINTERS
The N. Y. A. team led by the terrific hitting of Irv Rubels and Franklin "Fru" Crisci, topped the Winters Company team at Lockley field yesterday 13 to 4 to advance to the second round of the City-County softball tourney.

The N. Y. A. climbed on Cowden for 10 hits. The pitching of Joe Isabella was too much for the Winters and they got but six hits. Lee Colaluca pulled a spectacular catch in the fifth inning to halt a Winter rally.

Blackie Nocera and Vrabie also played well in the field. The best hit for the losers was H. O'Brien with a triple and single. Nohas and Figley also hit the ball hard for the Winters.

REITERS SURPRISE BORO A. C.
The Reiters proved the big surprise team in the City-County softball tourney yesterday at Centennial field by taking both ends of a double bill from the Boro A. C. after the Boro had won on Friday night to give them a leg.

The Boro were Reiters 5-4 in the opener, and 4 to 1 in the night-cap. Dave Hahn pulled an iron man stunt for four yesterday pitching both games for the Reiters. He gave but five hits the first game and four in the second game. He received a big ovation from the fans for his excellent work.

Hahn "Iron Man"
For 18 innings yesterday young Hahn set the hard hitting Boro down on their ears. The heavy hitters in the first game were Dombrski, E. Laitinen and Hahn with two hits apiece. For the Boro it was Grendick and B. Madjeski with two hits apiece.

In the second game the heavy hitters were Joe Shafic and Alfera with two hits apiece and for the Boro it was Kuzinski and Majeski.

D. Updegraff Pitches Five-Hitter To Win League Victory

The New Castle Red Sox won from the Union Civics yesterday at the Scotland Lane field in a postponed city league game 4 to 2 with Dutch Updegraff on the hill for the Sox and turning in a five-hitter.

The Sox had eight hits off of Shaw and Schas. Lower featured at bat with a homer, other heavy hitters being H. Updegraff, Morgan and Culbertson.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Two New Castle semi-pro baseball players today are in Wichita, Kan., where they will play with the Youngtown Sheet & Tube, semi-pro champions of Ohio in the National semi-pro tournament. They are Dory Gunnert, pitcher and Mickle Huff, outfielder. They were members of the Y. S. & T. team which captured the Ohio title thru defeats of Toledo, Akron, Canton and Youngtown Civics. The Y. S. & T. will oppose the championship team of Illinois, the name of which was not known by Gunnert or Huff.

Mike Orlando, seventh ward baseball player, is singing the praise of Monk Roney whom he declares is one of the best baseball pitching prospects in this section of the county.

Top fistic attraction of the week will be the Henry Armstrong-Lou Ambers fight in New York City. They were rained out last Wednesday night and the bout was delayed one week.

Everett Saylor of Dayton, 1937 national dirt track racing champion, won his second straight auto race at Sharon speedway yesterday. Saylor lapped the 10 miles in eight minutes and 43 seconds.

Old Furnace team of Zeilenople defeated Arbor Hill polo club seven to three in Columbus, Sunday. H. and T. Wilson each accounted for two of the victors' goals.

Ky Laffoon, Chicago, snatched first prize $3,000, in the $10,000 Cleveland open golf tournament Sunday. He turned in a 280 while Sam Sneed turned in a 281 for the seat.

Titular Series Start Wednesday

Bessemer, Wampum To Play First Game For County Loop Flag

STAGE SECOND - TILT SATURDAY

Wampum and Bessemer will play the first of a three game series for the championship of the Lawrence County Baseball league in Wampum, Wednesday. The game will start at 5:30 p. m. and several thousand fans are expected to witness the game. The pitchers have not yet been announced. It is likely they will be named Tuesday.

Bessemer captured the first half of the race and Wampum took the second half flag.

The second of the series will be played in Bessemer, Saturday afternoon.

Fighters Await Bell Tonight

Moran And Robinson To Settle Question Of Supremacy

SEVEN OTHER GOOD BOUTS ON CALENDAR

TONIGHT'S FIGHTS
Elmer Cortz, Ellwood City, vs Emil Cannell, New Castle, 126 pounds.
Wesley Rodgers, Grove City, vs Kid Stewart, Youngstown, 145 pounds.
Johnny Hines, Oil City, vs Steve Markovitch, Struthers, 126 pounds.
Kid Marino, Ellwood City, vs Billy Reale, Princeton, 160 pounds.
Johnny Como, Oil City, vs Tony Adamo, New Castle, 155 pounds.
Billy Miller, Meadville, vs Harold Blank, Youngstown, 142 pounds.
Sheldon Bell, Youngstown, vs Joe Popski, Meadville, 175 pounds.
Smoky Robinson, Oil City, vs Frankie Moran, New Castle, 126 pounds.

Johnny Hines, Oil City, vs Steve Markovitch, Struthers, 126 pounds.
Kid Marino, Ellwood City, vs Billy Reale, Princeton, 160 pounds.
Johnny Como, Oil City, vs Tony Adamo, New Castle, 155 pounds.
Billy Miller, Meadville, vs Harold Blank, Youngstown, 142 pounds.
Sheldon Bell, Youngstown, vs Joe Popski, Meadville, 175 pounds.
Smoky Robinson, Oil City, vs Frankie Moran, New Castle, 126 pounds.

Smoky Robinson of Oil City and Frankie Moran of New Castle, 126-pounders, are in the pink of physical condition and await the going that will send them together in a three-round punch duel in the eight-bout amateur boxing show in the Grove Street playground tonight. The first bout will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Tonight's fracas between the colored boy and localite will be a return engagement, the initial scrap having been won by Robinson on a decision recently. In that encounter the Oil City lad dropped Moran in the second round and Moran says he is "out for bear" tonight.

Just how the fight will end is something for speculation. It is a question which one has the stiffest punch. However, the fact remains that Moran can hit with both hands while Robinson's right is his most lethal weapon. In making advantage of the "breaks" Robinson showed best in their first scrap.

Eddie Flick, former lightweight of Oil City and boxer under the management of Bob Letera, will handle the colored chap, while Tommy Leach, trainer and Clyde Lennox, close friend of Moran's will be his advisors. It is not yet known who will judge and referee the battles tonight.

However, the Moran-Robinson set is not the only good-looking battle on tonight's calendar. There are several others, for instance the Sheldon Bell-Joe Popski, light-heavyweight clash. In their first bout Popski injured a wrist and suffered a technical knockout. He asked and was given a second chance.

Struthers Mute To Box
Tony Adamo, the Seventh ward's wallop, will take on Johnny Como, of Oil City, in a bout at 155 pounds. Adamo is a husky puncher. Just how good Como is remains to be seen. Should he stand up and swing a la Adamo the fans should see some feverish fighting.

The Elmer Cortz, Ellwood City, vs. Emil Cannell, New Castle, bout has a hometown flavor because both are from Lawrence county. There is hot rivalry between the youngsters. Wesley Rodgers, a high school lad of Grove City, will battle Kid Stewart, a youngster from Youngstown at 145 pounds. They are newcomers. Steve Markovitch, a mute of Struthers, will show his gloves here for the first time in a scrap with Johnny Hines of Oil City. They weigh 124 pounds. Billy Reale of Princeton, will go after his fourth win against Kid Marino, of Ellwood City, which also is an all-Lawrence county affair at 160 pounds.

One of the bouts that should draw placidly will be staged between Billy Miller of Meadville and Harold Blank of Youngstown. Blank has been a star in Ohio amateur ranks for some time. Miller is said to be as good as Blank, hence their keen rivalry between the welterweights.

Owing to the interest in the Moran-Robinson bout, which will eliminate one of them of a chance to box Elmer Cortz of East Liverpool, fans possibly will journey early to the playground fistic scene for a real close-up view of their every move.

Old Timers Lose To Hillsville, 2-1

Hillsville found tough pickings in the Old Time Hillsville aggregation but managed to eke out a 2-1 decision Sunday, at Hillsville.

Riley was on the mound for the lads of yesteryears and did well enough, permitting six blows. Another game will be played within two weeks.

Ryantown Plays At South Hill

The Ryantown team of the City league will play the South Hill team of the County League at the South Hill field at 6 o'clock tonight. It was announced by Manager Joe Samuels. All of the Ryantown players are asked to take notice of the scheduling of this game.

Rifle Club Has Practice Shoot

Club Preparing For Winter Season In Pennsylvania-Ohio League

New Castle Rifle club had a practice shoot at the Cathedral range, Friday evening, and will follow with another practice match this evening. There was a good turnout for the opening shoot, and some fine scores were shot as follows: Hill, and McKee, 190; Allen, Finley, R. Moore, J. Moore, 185; Gardner 188; Houk, 187; Crawford, 182; Jones, 181; Elder, Bryan, Ziegler, VanHorn 179; Blair, 167; Labinsky, 140; Maybray 134, Masson 185.

Due to the fact that interior decorating work is being done at the Cathedral, entrance to the range is available through the rear door.

Slovaks Defeat K. Pulaskis 7-6

Lenhart And Balla Combine To Pitch Slovaks To City League Win

The Slovak A. C. won from the K. Pulaskis team yesterday at the Cedar street field by the score of 7 to 6, with Lenhart and Balla the pitchers for the Slovaks and Soho and Mrzeck doing the hurling for the losers.

The Slovaks by their victory kept pace with the Mahoning team for the second-half title. Joe Ostrosky and Balla featured the hitting in the game by slugging out homers. The Slovaks scored in every inning but the fourth and eighth. Kozala with three hits aided the Slovaks considerably. Mike McHale saved the game for the Slovaks in the eighth by a spectacular catch of a hard hit liner.

The junior players, Jackie Snyder, aged 12, and Ted Lach, Jr., aged 13, defeated Jack Winter and Art Snow, Jr., of similar ages, and representing the Field club, the visiting pair being unable to get their bearings on the strange course, although they gave a very good account of themselves.

Their scores were as follows:
Snyder 48-48-96, Lach 41-44-85, Jack Winter 54-53-107, Art Snow, Jr., 53-51-104.

In a special mixed foursome, Mrs. Freda Nolan paired up with Marty Segedi to defeat Mrs. Sara Rowan of Ellwood City and Herman Kennedy. Their scores follow:

Mrs. Nolan 45-40-85, Segedi 40-38-78, Mrs. Rowan 48-50-98, Kennedy 39-39-78.

Angelo Monsey, pro at the New Castle Field club, paired up with Emil Mancine, Sylvan Heights pro, to defeat Julius Platte, Beaver Valley Country Club pro and last year's West Penn open champion, and Bob Thompson of Ellwood City. The visitors had difficulty getting adjusted to the greens and were under a handicap as a result.

Their scores were as follows:
Monsey 36-38-72, Mancine 40-36-76, Platte 37-37-74, Thompson 38-37-75.

Angelo "Dike" Monsey, Field club pro, won the driving contest, although he was out-driven in the elimination by Marty Segedi, slugging of the Sylvan Heights course.

In the eliminations, Segedi had a drive of 270 yards and 4 inches; Monsey 260 yards and 9 inches, and Jimmy Pagley 260 yards and 3 inches. The three then drove again in the finals, Monsey winning with a drive which carried 280 yards. Segedi hit one smash around 300 yards, but it went out of bounds, the fairway having been sarked out for the contest, and drove outside the stakes were not counted.

Mahoning Trips Ryantown 11-8

Take Step Nearer Flag, Paul McCullough Pitches For Mahoning

With Paul McCullough on the hill, the Mahoning A. A. team went a step nearer the second half flag in the City Baseball league yesterday at Ryantown field by topping Ryantown 11 to 8. McCullough was lifted in the ninth in favor of Rainey.

The game was a ten-inning affair. The Mahoning got to Pauly Morrison in the first of the tenth for three runs to win the game.

McCullough besides hurling a fine game, giving nine hits during his stay on the mound, had three of the Mahoning A. A. hits. He also drew two walks for a perfect day at bat.

Best for Ryantown was Campbell with three hits, and Witherow and "Schoolboy" Lintz with two hits apiece.

Giants Capture Two Games And Pare Down Lead

Pirates Trim Cubs Sunday
As Giants Win Two,
Yanks Also Win Two

WESLEY FERRELL NOW WITH YANKS

By ANTHONY J. PUGLIESE
International News Service Sports

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Wesley Ferrell, one of baseball's hard-to-handle lads, awoke today to find himself a member of the Yankees, with a very good chance of cutting in on the world series plum.

Wes, possessor of an excellent fast ball a few years back, has found the path to success today in recent seasons due not so much to his loss of speed, but rather his frequent displays of temper.

The story is that's part of the reason the Senators handed him his unconditional release last week. But whatever the cause, the transfer to Washington, Ferrell is definitely with the Yankees. It is within his power to gain a starting berth, if his early efforts reveal he still "has it."

Yanks Win Two
Ferrell can be the Yankees' last bit of assurance in winning the pennant if he adds to his present record of 13 wins and eight losses.

Acquisition of Ferrell was especially timely because the Yankees lost the services of Joe Vance, rookie relief pitcher who has been stricken with appendicitis and probably will be out for the rest of the season. The Yankees increased their lead to 7½ games yesterday by taking a double header from the Athletics, 4 to 3 and 9 to 2 as the Indians won a single contest from the White Sox 6 to 4.

Spud Chandler and Monte Pearson pitched steadily and two homers by Lou Gehrig and one each by George Selkirk and Bill Dickey finished the A's.

Ken Keltner and Earl Averill hit homers in the Tribe's win. With Harry Kelley pitching five hit ball and knocking in three runs the Senators beat the Red Sox 7 to 1.

Giants Take Pair
In St. Louis, Buck Newsom held the Tigers to one lone hit to win the opener of a twin bill, 7 to 1, and the second game was called on account of darkness after nine innings with the tally 3-0.

The Giants ran rough shod over the Phillies, winning 11 to 0 and 14 to 6 on a 34-hit attack. The Phils contributed 10 errors in the two contests.

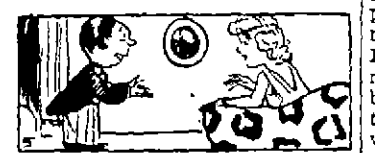

With Johnny Rizzo hitting for the circuit the Pirates shut out the Cubs, 2 to 0 but dropped to within four and a half of the Giants.

Dodgers-Bees Split
The Dodgers and Bees split a twin bill at Ebbets Field. The Dodgers hurled three hit ball to win the opener, 2 to 0, and Lou Fette evened matters for the Bees in the nightcap, 6 to 4 by taking his ninth win of the year. Harry Craft's homer aided the Reds in a 5 to 4 triumph over the Cardinals in the opener, but Joe Medwick's circuit club, and the Cards' 8 to 1 win in the nightcap as Clyde Shoun pitched six hit ball.

SOUTH SIDE BUCS WIN
The South Side Bucs won from the South Hill Yanks 18 to 4 on Saturday. Beans Daniels submarine hurler for the Bucs, gave away three hits. This was a midweek baseball game.

Ky Laffoon Is Tournery Winner At Cleveland, O.

SLINGING SAMMY SNEAD IS SECOND AND BILLY BURKE IS THIRD IN OAKWOOD OPEN

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 15.—Ky Laffoon, Chicago pro, today was better off by $3,000 in cash—his compensation for winning Cleveland's inaugural $10,000 open golf tournament with 280 strokes.

Sam Snead, the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., wonder boy, tautly watched Ky snatch top money with a final round of 70 a few minutes after Snead wound up with a record-equalling 67.

Snead's total was 281. He earned $1,500 in prize money. Laffoon's concluding gesture was the dubbing of an easy putt on the home green, but birdies on the fourteenth and fifteenth holes were sufficient to decide the verdict in his favor.

Bill Burke of Cleveland, who was tied with Laffoon at 210 after the third round, had been playing poorly, but he had a round of 72 to previous cards of 71, 70 and 68 for a total of 282 and $800 third money.

Tied at 285 were Ralph Guidahl, National Open title holder, E. J. ("Dutch") Harrison of Chicago, Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N. J., and Ray Mangrum, Oakmont, Pa., each of these players came in for $487.50 at the pay window.

In 1790, when the first U. S. census was taken, the population was 3,929,214.

Tonsettic And Powell Pitch
West Pittsburgh To City League Win

West Pittsburgh with Lefty Tonsettic and Dick Powell on the mound held a 15 to 2 victory today over the St. Josephs team in a city league game at Rotary field Sunday.

The game was a slugfest, match from start to finish with a total of 28 hits being registered. John Marky featured the game with a rousing homer, while other heavy hitters were Gibson, Kolick, Augustins, Walzer, Powell, James Marky, J. Elssesser and A. DeMonaco.

West Pittsburgh still has a chance for the second half flag in the city league, according to Danny DeGenna, manager of the team.

Foreman's Club Picnic Saturday Most Successful

More Than 200 Participate In Highly Enjoyable Event In Edgewood Grove

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 15.—On Saturday, August 13, in Edgewood Grove on the Ellwood-Beaver Falls road, the Foreman's Club of the National Tube company held its eighth annual picnic. The weatherman produced a perfect picnic day for the occasion and about 200 members of the Club took advantage of it to make the annual affair an outstanding success.

Starting with a substantial lunch at 12:30 o'clock, the afternoon was filled with races and sports. The challenge baseball game was a complete comedy of errors with the Cold Draw Challengers being defeated in an extra inning 18 to 17. Outstanding players for the Club All Stars were Ray Marshall, whose two home runs were featured, and Jim Hereford, who fielding at rover snort was sensational. Outstanding for the Cold Draw was Al Howells, who played the entire outfield as rover. The winning pitcher was C. E. MacDonald, the loser C. R. Stevenson. E. R. Downing and J. A. Kirkpatrick were umpires and Ed. Lloyd Manger of the Cold Draw and S. E. Elder of the Foreman's Club.

Following the baseball game gate prizes were awarded to J. J. Kuban, Frank Wallace, J. J. Boyle, Stanley Goszewski and Frank Dremann. Prizes were paid up yearly memberships to the Foreman's Club.

The sports program was next and winners of the various events were: Fat men's race—C. E. MacDonald; Shoe race—S. E. Ferrucci. Sack race—Irwin Bookamer. Peanut race—Ray Labate. Ball throwing contest—L. H. Wehman. Golf ball driving contest—C. R. Relph.

Upon completion of this program, the members played bingo, cards, and various other games provided for their amusement until late hour, when the merry-makers departed for home.

The success of the affair was due chiefly to the well planned program as prepared by the various committees appointed for the occasion. A lot of fun was enjoyed by all and it is felt that this picnic marks the auspicious beginning of an equally successful club year.

Girl Scouts Enjoying Life At Kiondashawa

Girl Scouts at Camp Kiondashawa, in Mercer county—over a hundred of them—are having a swell time, are in good health, and every day are adding weight. Meals planned under the supervision of Mrs. David Ritchie, Sr. with Mrs. Pearl Mills and Mrs. Effie Morrison, cooks, are well-balanced, appetizing and plentiful.

Friday was inspection day by the camp committee, members Mrs. W. H. Harker, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Reis, Miss Della Glenn and Mrs. Andrew Duddy, accompanied by Mrs. John A. Edgar, publicity chairman, drove up early in the day to join other committee members. Miss Emily Rice, commissioner; Mrs. R. L. Galbreath, nurse; Mrs. H. R. McCulloch, in charge of handicraft, and Miss Helen McLean, director, on a general tour of the camp.

Gypsy and Pioneer units, 12 girls and two counselors in each, were found delightfully located on level wooded spots a little away from main camp. These groups of older girls are "on their own" with little supervision from the counselors, Donna Jean Beall and Betty Briednbaugh (Gypsies), and Mrs. Ruth L. Coffman, of Oil City, and Peggy England (Pioneers). Gypsies are really roughing it, sleeping in pup tents on the ground, while the Pioneers have cots in their tents. In spite of the rains this week many of which did not hit that section as here, the girls have kept from getting drenched and they love the idea of being on their own.

Hikes are every-other day occurrences, with two meals cooked out of doors daily by the girls in turn. For the third meal they join the larger groups in the big mess hall.

Project work in camp includes erection of wet caches (for keeping dairy products cold), incinerators, wash stands, and other outdoor construction work, with incidentally much practice in the art of wood chopping.

All constructive work is being done in a happy, co-operative frame of mind, and when these periods are concluded there are the daily swims in the big 100-foot pool. Thursday was highlighted for the pioneers by a "sunset supper" on a nearby farm, where there was a gorgeous view from a high hill. They had a tasty "posobag" meal. Late Wednesday afternoon the Gypsies hiked about four miles, enjoying supper in the open, and then trekking back by moonlight. Thursday they left at noon for Fruits Bridge, about three miles away, where they had a hearty meal and returned in time for evening repast at camp.

Friday was rest day for these groups, with handicraft instruction for a period by Mrs. McCulloch, and similar light activities. A general campfire Thursday evening for everybody had for other entertainment, attractive dramatizations of their various unit names. The Mexican unit, the youngest girls in camp, presented a bazaar street scene, with dancing and songs. Next in line, the Sherwood Forest, or Robin Hood unit, sang an original song about camp life, followed by a clever shadowgraph showing an archer. A pageant of folk from books of fancy and fiction, with fairy songs was the offering of the Wonderland unit.

The Canal Settlers gave an amusing dramatization showing "Queen City," the first boat, in 1844, passing through the old Erie Canal which is thought to be part of the Shenango river back of the camp. The cowboys (Pioneer unit) rode in off the range bedecked in sombreros and gay colored neckerchiefs, brightening their regular camp outfits. They sang cowboy songs and explained the way and wherefore of the cowboy's "singing campfire." The Gypsies sang a gay ballad of the open road and the program was closed with the light of the campfire reflecting on the big circle of eager young faces as the scouts sang taps, and turned up the hill for crackers and milk before retiring for the night.

Continuing their tour Friday the committee visited the office where Director McLean, and her assistant, Virginia Mariana, are in charge. Commissioner Emily Rice was busy at the canteen, where miscellaneous small items may be purchased, popular books secured, and mail distributed.

The days are full and yet restful and educational, with everybody happy. The new camp site this year is proving most popular with the swimming pool a big drawing card. Miss Mary Louder is in charge, assisted by Dorothy Robins, Marian Connor and Sallie Wilson. Of particular interest to parents is the following daily schedule:

7—Rise and shine.
7:30—Colors.
7:45—Breakfast, camp capers, housekeeping, unit meetings, swimming.
9:25—Swing lessons.
10:00—Swimming lessons, younger group unit programs until noon.
12:20—Dinner bell, free time, library.
2-3—Rest.
3-4:30—Hobbies.
5:35—Supper bell.
7:00—Free time and boating.
8:00—Campfire.
9:00—Taps.

HAND CAUGHT IN FAN

John Belber, well known barber and beautician, met with a serious accident this week while at his work. His right hand was caught in the electric fan.

Mr. Belber has been unable to fill his appointments, and has at present a severe cut.

WAMPUM NOTES

Mrs. James Glover, who has been ill, is improved.

Mrs. Laura Weir, who is ill, continues about the same.

M. B. Flynn and Gene Roberts left last night for New York City.

Mrs. C. L. Eppman and Mrs. S. Hennon, were New Castle shoppers Thursday.

Are You Ruptured? Have You A Hernia?

See your doctor concerning an operation—that is the best procedure. Should you not desire an operation at this time speak to us about a truss. Let our graduate truss fitter examine you and suggest the best means of properly retaining your hernia. Let him show you that a properly fitted truss does not irritate or chafe the skin.

Bert Dinsmore, who looks after county bridges, reports that they are now all in first class shape. Mr. Dinsmore has been looking after county bridges for years, and his knowledge of the construction of every bridge enables him to keep them in good shape at a minimum of expense to the county.

A nervous little woman was up for examination for naturalization papers Saturday, when the examiner asked, "What makes you so nervous?" and the woman replied, "I don't know unless it's because I have 11 children." The examiner agreed that this might be a good and sufficient cause, but when the woman, who has been here for 25 years, did not know why we celebrate the Fourth of July, he advised her to quit rearing babies and devote a little time to a study of the history of our country.

According to figures received from the Department of Revenue, there are approximately 28,500 gas stations in Pennsylvania, and around 80,000 pumps. It's a mighty lonely road that does not have its share of gas stations.

Former Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard announces that he is going into the real estate and insurance business.

Letters of administration in the estate of the late Hazel F. Thompson have been granted by Register and Recorder Orville Potter to H. Meade Thompson.

Sheriff M. M. Ingham is sending out notices to persons who have been drawn as jurors for the September term of quarter sessions court. The grand jury will convene on Monday, September 12, and the petit jury on September 12 and 26.

From present indications there will be very few cases for trial during the second week of court as the list is short.

While work is to begin this week on improvement of four miles of the Frew Mill road, it is expected a further extension of the improvement will be taken up at a later date. Shenango township is faring pretty well in road improvements this year.

Attorneys are filing papers in ex-cutions on properties which will be sold by the sheriff at the opening of September term of court. There were no sheriff sales in August, owing to the fact that it is the vacation period for attorneys. Indications are that there will be quite a long list for September.

Harry Sanford, who has been doing the painting in the interior of the court house, finished up his work Saturday, and the county commissioners are very well pleased with the job. Sanford has done a job that certainly reflects his skill in handling the brush.

ROBIN ENULATES CANARY

YEADON, Pa.—"Dopey," a scrawny robin, rescued by Mrs. R. Carkeek, of this community, thinks he's a canary. The bird spends most of his time on a neighbor's window sill listening to the pet canary. Then he flies back and practices scales for hours, explained Mrs. Carkeek.

NEW HIGHWAY

NEW YORK.—When completed, the new Northern State Parkway extension will provide a 40-mile direct route between Jones' Beach and Manhattan, the Bronx and Upstate New York. The new road, with 18 separation bridges eliminating cross-roads, also will connect with other main Long Island highways.

Nine men have served as vice president of the United States prior to becoming president.

35-YEAR-OLD TICKET

(International News Service) MARSHALL, Texas.—"Tickets please!" said the conductor on the Texas & Pacific railroad, and W. M. Mosier handed over his pasteboard. The conductor squinted closely, then grinned and said, "Well, I guess it's alright for me to take this."

The ticket had been bought in 1903. Mosier said he believes in getting his money's worth.
